B.P.W. Would Make Survey Of Tunnel's Possibilities

Truman to Ask Postal Rate Boost

Second Class Classification Reported Level Which Is Losing Money

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—President Truman will renew with vigor next year his plea for higher postal rates to help balance the budget, those in the know said today.

The Postoffice Department now seems likely to wind up $500,000,000 in the red next June 30—an unprecedented loss which would account for more than a third of the deficit forecast for the entire government's operation this fiscal year.

Officials told a reporter privately the increases most certain to be proposed will involve second class mail—made up chiefly of newspapers and magazines.

They said the reason is that the Postoffice Department rates that category as its biggest money-loser. They insisted the fact that a majority of the nation's press opposed Mr. Truman's election is beside the point.

To emphasize their no-retaliation contention, they recalled that the President recommended postal rate boosts in each of the last two years and followed up the first suggestion with a specific bill drafted by the postmaster general.

A feature of that bill was sharply boosted rates for second class matter.

It never got out of committee for a vote in either house of Congress.

Some increases were voted by the 80th Congress to go into effect on January 1. They will raise air-mail stamps from five cents to six, make varying hikes in third and fourth class mail, and up rates on money orders and registered mail.

Third class mail is made up of circulars, catalogues and other printed matter or merchandise weighing under eight ounces. Fourth class mail is parcel post—packages between eight ounces and 70 pounds in weight.

Those increases were voted by Congress for the specific purpose of offsetting part of the costs of a pay raise given to the 500,000 Postoffice Department employees.

Washington Ave. Line Valued at $600,000; Ground Leak Discovered

First Steps Toward a Survey That Would Mean More Extensive Use of a Sewer Line Known as the "Washington Avenue Tunnel," Were Taken at a Meeting of the Board of Public Works Wednesday.

The board recommended that Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk keep the proposal in mind when he makes up the 1949 budget.

The survey would cost an estimated $1,500 and would open the way for more extensive use of the large tunnel, City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan and Edward J. McCaffrey, consulting engineer, explained in a letter.

The tunnel was built many years ago by New York City's water department in conjunction with that department's use of facilities in and around the city at the time of the building of the Ashokan water works project.

Inspection has revealed, the engineers said, that the tunnel is "physically in sound condition," but a "ground water leakage" has been discovered. This, and possible other slight defects would be eliminated if the survey is authorized.

Only a small part of the tunnel's capacity is currently in use, it was explained. The tunnel is valued at approximately $600,000 the engineers' letter said, and is an outlet covering about 40 per cent of the city's population.

Assessment was reported completed on the installation of the

Shandaken, Hurley Ratio 87; Will Vote Friday on Table

Under an equalization table recommended by the Equalization Committee of the Board of Supervisors and offered for adoption by Chairman Cluett Schantz, the city of Kingston receives an increase of 20 points over the table adopted last year to raise the equalization ratio to 90.

In Shandaken the ratio is increased from 58 to 87, an increase of 29 points. The only other two changes in the table offered for adoption are in Hurley where the ratio is dropped a point from 88 to 87 and in Shawangunk where there is a two-point drop from 70 to 68.

In the city of Kingston, which had a ratio of 70 last year, a blanket increase in assessments of 33 1/3 per cent was announced some time ago and a very substantial increase was also made in Shandaken assessments.

Several hearings on equalization have been held before the Committee on Equalization and Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk appeared before the committee last week, calling attention of the committee to the 33 1/3 per cent increase in assessments which have been laid for next year. On this basis he sought an increase in ratio from the 70 of last year to 93. The committee in reporting its findings however allocated 90 per cent to the city for the 20-point increase over last year.

The equalization table offered Wednesday for adoption is:

Body of Nurse, 22, Found in Grave

Ossipee, N. H., Nov. 18 (AP)—The battered body of a young woman believed by police to be the missing Newark, N. J., nurse, Ruth Eisenberg, was moved today from the shallow grave where it was found last night.

Authorities reported, however, there was "nothing definite" as they waited detailed examination by medical experts.

The body was taken to a funeral home in Sanbornville, N. H., where County Solicitor Preston Smart and state authorities awaited arrival of the missing girl's father, Ephraim Eisenberg, Newark school principal.

Dulles Heads U. S. Delegation to U.N.

Key West, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—President Truman today designated John Foster Dulles as acting chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations in his first official post-election endorsement of this country's bipartisan foreign policy.

The President at the same time appointed Benjamin Cohen as chief United States delegate to the U.N. General Assembly in Paris to replace Republican Warren Austin, who has returned to the United States because of illness.

During Austin's illness, Dean Rusk, a State Department official, will serve in Cohen's place as alternate delegate.

Rosoff May Buy Liners

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Hope of continuing the four white steamers of the Hudson River Day Line on the New York-to-Albany run was reported last night.

Alfred V. S. Olcott, president of the line, said Samuel R. Rosoff of subway building fame had expressed interest in buying the boats and keeping them in operation.

Olcott announced last week that rising costs without added patronage had compelled the line to quit operations and sell its properties.

Rosoff owned the Hudson River Night Line, which went out of operation in 1940. The 67-year-old Russian immigrant, who started peddling newspapers here at the age of 12, was reported yesterday to have said "I have always had a soft spot in my heart for the Hudson river."

His office said he was out of the city and unavailable for comment on the reported Day Line deal.

Olcott said Rosoff telephoned him and suggested a meeting next week. No price was mentioned, Olcott said, for the line's properties, including the steamer Hendrick Hudson, Robert Fulton, Peter Stuyvesant and Alexander Hamilton.

Has Biggest Boom

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 18 (AP)—The port of Halifax is geared for its biggest peacetime boom because eastern U. S. harbors are tied up by a longshoremen's strike.

The 2,000 members of the Halifax Longshoremen's Association (A.L.U.) who put on two days of slow downs in sympathy with U. S. strikers, went back to work in earnest yesterday. Their president, J. J. Campbell, said his union is bound legally to handle all ships and "that's what we're going to do."

He Found Out

Hoopston, Ill., Nov. 18 (AP)—A representative of a parking meter company visited Hoopston to see how the meters are working out. He found both the meters and the police in good working order. On his return from a talk with the chief of police he learned his car had been ticketed for overtime parking.

Question: Will U.S. Join Armed Conflict With Communists?

Britain Asks U.N. To Use Bernadotte Plan for Palestine

Resolution Suggests New Conciliation Group to Assume Some Functions

Paris, Nov. 18 (AP)—Britain formally asked the United Nations today to apply the late Count Folke Bernadotte's plan to Palestine. A British spokesman said the United States delegation took part "at an official level" in drafting this proposal.

The British submitted to the 58-nation political committee a resolution following the lines of the slain mediator's final report. The resolution calls for a conciliation commission of three nations to supervise the division of Palestine between Arabs and Israelis.

The resolution suggested that the conciliation commission also take over, at the request of the Security Council, any or all functions of the acting mediator, Ralph J. Bunche, and the present U.N. truce commission.

The conciliation group also would appoint a technical boundaries commission to aid in outlining frontiers in Palestine "based on specific conclusions" of Count Bernadotte and "subject to such adjustment as may promote agreement" between the Arabs and Jews.

The proposal was placed before the committee following a debate on the Palestine situation. British Delegate Hector McNeill expressed hope the full General Assembly would support the Bernadotte plan.

The endorsement of the plan was the first in the committee by any major U. N. member.

Debate Lasts Hour

The debate lasted only an hour. Speakers other than McNeill were Hector David Castro of El Salvador and Faris El Khouri of Syria. Despite the chairman's urging, no other delegates offered to speak and the meeting was recessed.

While the political committee worked slowly on the Palestine case, the General Assembly went into the first of three plenary sessions scheduled for today.

The assembly had before it a Russian proposal for a one-third reduction in land, sea and air forces of the big five powers and prohibition of atomic weapons.

The Russian proposal was decisively defeated in the political committee but the Soviet is expected to carry the fight to the floor of the assembly.

Other major questions before the assembly was the report of the trusteeship council and the problem of aid to Arab refugees, most of the remaining 20 matters before the group are secondary problems.

The United States has not yet told the political committee its position on the Bernadotte plan. Secretary of State George C. Marshall said at the opening of the assembly the U. S. supported the mediator's report as a basis for settlement of the Holy Land problem.

Chief Points

The chief points of the Bernadotte report are the assignment of the Negev desert in the south to the Arabs, giving western Galilee to the Jews and placing Jerusalem under U. N. control.

Israel opposes giving up the Negev area, which was given to it in the assembly partition plan of November 29, 1947. Israel contends also that Jewish Jerusalem and a corridor from Jerusalem to the coastal area of Israel must be given to the Jews.

Marines Will Sail From Guam to Tsingtao Base

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—The United States, bolstering its marine force in China, left open today the question of whether "circumstances" might lead to armed conflict with Communist troops.

The navy said 1,250 Leathernecks will sail from Guam next Tuesday to reinforce the 3,600-man marine garrison at Tsingtao.

This force, said the navy in adding details to a surprise news conference announcement by Secretary of Defense Forrestal, "will assist in the orderly evacuation of United States nationals through the port of Tsingtao."

Forrestal was asked by reporters whether the marines will fight if the Communists armies attack Tsingtao. That replied Forrestal is a matter for the State Department to decide.

At the State Department, Press Officer Michael J. McDermott took this position:

"The answer is that it all depends on circumstances and there is no answer now. I don't know what the answer will be. I can't pretend to say now what they will do in certain circumstances."

On the basis of information available here, the circumstances at this time are these:

1. Tsingtao, Yellow Sea port at the base of the Shantung peninsula, is close to Communist-controlled areas—so close that the water supply for the city is within Communist-held territory. Some experts believe that the Communists can take the city any time they choose, without much opposition from Nationalist forces.

2. In the Shanghai-Nanking areas there are about 3,000 Americans. In other sections, including the evacuation port of Tsingtao, there are 1,374 others. These figures are based on a report from the State Department.

Knutson Would See Boost in Taxation For Corporations

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.), author of the law that cut individuals' taxes, said today the corporation income tax ought to be boosted.

"A number of large corporations," Knutson told reporters, "are making too much money. He said he has 'given up any thought' of further slashes in taxes for the individual."

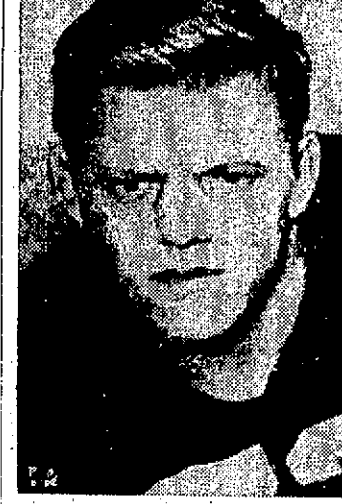

Knutson said he is going to leave those ideas with the new chairman of the congressional committee that writes tax bills.

For corporations, he said, a 4 per cent tax hike that would bring in about $1,100,000,000. The rate now is 38 per cent of income over $50,000, after the usual deductions are allowed.

Knutson pointed to the steel industry as an example of companies he said are making too much money.

Traffic Light Is Installed on 9W At Street Crossing

Control Put at Intersection of Salem Street in Port Ewen as Safety Step

A traffic control light was installed Tuesday on Route 9W at the intersection of Salem street in Port Ewen.

In its two days of operation, the light has won the approval of residents of Port Ewen, who pointed out today that the signal not only affords them a chance to cross the highway, but also has the effect of slowing the stream of through traffic to a speed closer to the legal limit.

The light is of the stop-and-go type which, normally, gives a green signal to the motorists on Route 9W. It can be changed to stop through traffic and give the green signal to cross traffic either by a vehicle passing over a plate in the surface of Salem street or by a pedestrian operating a push button located at either side of the highway. The light is in operation 24 hours a day.

The State Traffic Commission authorized the installation of this light by an order dated December 3, 1947, after much agitation by residents that some safety measures be taken.

The Traffic Commission order followed a public hearing held in Port Ewen on October 29, at which residents of the hamlet and the Division of State Police were represented. John T. Groves was supervisor of the town of Esopus, in which Port Ewen is located, at the time.

According to the State Highway Department's district engineer in Poughkeepsie, erection of the light was delayed until the present because of shortage of material.

Convenience, Safeguard: Residents and business people in Port Ewen contacted today agreed that the new light is a convenience and safeguard for local motorists and pedestrians, and added that it will be of even greater benefit when the heavy summer traffic begins next year.

Planes Had Big Part in Fighting

Clear, Moonlit Nights Made Possible Sino Bombing, Strafing of Communists

Secret Talk Held

Nanking, Nov. 18 (AP)—The government claimed complete victory in the Suchow battle today.

Gen. Chang Liu-shih, official military spokesman, told his weekly press conference:

"The government could be considered as concluded. What the Communists do now is subject to conjecture."

Chang pictured the Red forces in flight. He said government troops and planes were mopping up an area extending 30 miles around Suchow.

The spokesman asserted 130,000 casualties were inflicted on the Reds as against 40,000 suffered by nationalists.

(Even as he spoke 1,250 American marine reinforcements prepared to rush from Guam to Tsingtao, 225 miles northeast of Suchow, to bolster the 3,600 marines at the U. S. naval anchorage there. Shanghai reports had a Red truck column moving toward Tsingtao from Tsinan.)

(U. S. Senator George W. Malone (R-Nev.) in Tokyo told the Associated Press he attended a secret conference in Tsingtao yesterday at which plans were discussed by representatives of Gen. Douglas MacArthur and navy leaders. He said he could not discuss the plans.)

Other government sources said the government won at least the opening phase of the Suchow battle against 300,000 veteran troops. This victory, they added, means Nanking is safe at least for a month or longer.

Other government sources previously announced more than 1,000,000 men on both sides were involved in the battle.

Chiang's Stocks Rise: More optimistic officials said the results of the past week's fighting means the ascendancy of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's once waning fortunes.

Foreign observers placed the result of the fighting along the Suchow front somewhere between complete victory and the Communists' continued insistence that they still hold the initiative.

Gen. Chow Chih-Jou's rejuvenated air force furnished the balance of power which apparently threw back Red Gen. Chen's troops.

Favored with a perfect combination of battle, excellent weather, bright moonlight nights, and an enemy carelessly concentrated in the open plains around Suchow, Chou's warplanes made the Communist positions untenable by around-the-clock bombing and strafing.

Operating from Nanking's military airfield, more than 100 planes ranging from Mustang fighter bombers to four-engine Liberators, plastered the areas south, southeast and east of Suchow constantly during the past week. Slower planes dropped munitions and food to the ground forces below.

It appears certain that Red Generals Chen and Liu Po-Cheng—if they have not been defeated—have been forced to abandon the immediate conquest of Suchow and withdraw for regrouping.

Chang said the bulk of Chen's nine columns were "enticed" into a pocket east of Suchow by Gen. Continued on Page Thirty-one

The New Governors

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 18 (AP)—Back in 1912 School Teacher Forrest Smith decided to run for county clerk in Ray county.

His father didn't think it was such a good idea. He said he never had known a politician who amounted to anything.

But next January the man who disregarded his father's advice will be inaugurated as governor of Missouri. A Democrat, he swept into office with a thumping majority.

Smith has been a public office holder for 35 of his 62 years. The past 16 he has been state auditor of Missouri, the only state official to be elected to four terms. He campaigned with the slogan: "There is no substitute for experience."

The incoming governor has a frame and features that combine to make a political asset. He is six feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. His face is easy for voters to remember—heavy black eyebrows overhanging rugged features, topped by graying black hair with cowlick tendencies. Smith's campaign platform pledged better pay for teachers, better roads for farmers, more aid for the needy, increased funds for a modern health program.

along with an efficient administration and "lower taxes at every opportunity."

When not working they say there are three places you can find him: At a football game, fishing or hunting or at his 120-acre farm near his home town of Richmond, Mo.

Proud of her husband is Mrs. Mildred Smith. There's was a school room romance. She taught the primary grades in the school of which Smith was the principal. They have two married daughters.

Seizure Is Investigated

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—The State Department today was investigating the reported seizure of an American freighter at Port Said, Egypt. Egyptian authorities were said to be attempting to con-iscate the cargo of the 10,000-ton vessel, The Flying Trader, on the theory it was bound for Israel. Reports of the seizure came from the Isbrandtsen Steamship Co., operators of the Victory-class ship, on the basis of radio messages. Joseph W. Ryan, company counsel, said the ship carried a cargo of 4,000 tons of rice, picked up at Kohsichang, Burma, for delivery to Genoa, Italy, and 38 trucks being brought from Bombay, India, to New York. The ship was not scheduled to call at any Palestine port.

Atomic Energy Gives Alarm

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—By putting a tiny dab of atomic energy on them, valuable paintings can be caused to ring a bell or blow a whistle when thieves touch them. This new use of radioactive atoms is told by L. Yaffe, of the Atomic Energy Project National Research Council of Canada at Chalk river, in the new scientific journal, Nucleonics. The rays from atoms placed somewhere on the painting, would fall continuously on a circuit in the wall behind the work of art. Removing the picture would break a circuit and start the alarm.

Rent Ceilings Are To Be Raised in Several Sections

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Tight E. Woods, national housing expediter, said last night that rent ceilings in "quite a number of areas" now under federal control soon may be lifted.

He said in an interview that his office is completing a national survey with a view of removing controls in areas where it is found that the residential housing crisis has passed.

Preliminary findings, he said, indicate that ceilings may be lifted in several areas throughout the country without serious effects. He said he will order an end of restrictions in such cases.

However, he said, New York city and "every other large center of population" must remain subject to regulations for some time.

There are about 700 areas in the country still under federal rent control.

In large cities, Woods said, the housing shortage still remains critical for the average family, despite reports of slow rentals in higher-priced, luxury dwellings recently erected and therefore not subject to control.

He said his survey will be completed before January 1, and controls may be ended in some communities about that time.

He said the survey also may be used as a basis for recommendation to Congress for strengthening the rent-control law, which expires March 31, 1949.

Woods said tighter controls over evictions, and re-establishment of controls over hotel rentals, probably would be among the recommendations.

PUNISHMENT BEFORE WAR
At times it is easy to think the last war as something that "just happened"—a horrible catastrophe whose effects must be dealt with for a long time to come, but a catastrophe more like an act of nature than of men.

It is close to us and yet far away. Its consequences are all about us, but they are not yet in perspective. The burning hatred of the enemy war lords has subsided. In its place the fear of a new war and the need to prevent it occupy our thoughts and blur the old outline.

Then the long trial of former Premier Tojo and his companions in Japanese treachery comes to an end. And suddenly the memory of World War II becomes sharp. We recall that it was the deliberate creation of cold-hearted, cold-minded, cruel, bigoted men. These Japanese, like their Nazi partners, were the architects of a war unmatched for savagery and destruction. And now, like the Nazis, they must pay for their crimes.

This is something new. Mankind, after suffering and glorifying wars throughout its history, at last decided that the murderer of thousands must face the same justice as the murderer of one. Yet there were some who objected to this decision after the Nuernberg trial of the Nazis.

They claimed there was no precedent for such a trial, nor even any laws to cover the defendants' crimes. The court was prosecutor as well as judge. The Nazis were condemned and convicted before they were tried. The whole idea was unsound because the very military who prosecuted Goering and his clique might meet a similar fate in another war.

The public generally was not much impressed by these objections. And there is even less room for fault-finding in the Tokyo trials. Tojo and the rest were given the longest trial in history. Their cases were heard by civilian judges.

The evidence was weighed carefully, and punishment was fixed in proportion to the weight of their crimes—within the limits of what justice can exact. Naturally, the lives of Tojo and the other six cannot pay for their offenses.

At any rate, the precedent is set. But, while it is just, it cannot cover the whole possible field of war crimes. The Nazi and German war lords were not punished for losing a war, as some of them claimed. But they could not have been punished if they had not lost it.

A victorious aggressor in a world war could not legally be punished by his victims. It is more likely that he might adopt the precedent of Nuernberg and Tokyo to punish the leaders who resisted him.

The only solution, of course, is the punishment of aggression at its start by the combined force of international action. That is the United Nations' job. So far the United Nations has given little cause for hope that it could forestall any serious threat to world peace. The will and the means to realize that hope must be found. Punishment of aggression after a war is morally right, but it is far from the perfect answer.

LOST' RELIC OF COLUMBUS

One of the world's most valuable lost books has been found—maybe. The log-book kept by Christopher Columbus when he discovered America is reported to be in the possession of Charles P. Smith of Vancouver, B. C., who says he found it in the library of his deceased brother in England. The family tradition is that it was found in a lead-lined casket off the coast of Wales in 1890.

Columbus is known to have kept a log-book, but unfortunately, it was lost early. Some of his first biographers had access either to it or to a summary, but neither has been located for many years. Copies of the letters which he wrote announcing his great discovery fetch many thousands of dollars. The unique original of the log-book would be worth a fabulous amount.

Historians and language experts of the University of British Columbia, who have examined the find, doubt its genuineness. For the sake of future historians, it can be hoped

BEWARE OF PEACE!
The Trojan Horse is still a device of war. And it can be mental as well as physical. There can be a Trojan Horse of false ideas as well as of spies and traitors and mean-spirited humans who would accept such a peace as includes slavery. They believe in peace at any price—even at the loss of their country. Similar people betrayed their country in many nations of Europe and are now betraying their country in China.

Such a peace offensive is being driven at the American people. The chorus of those who have found their spiritual comfort in the Kremlin are already shouting not only for peace, but they would humiliate the presidency of the United States by requiring the President to pay court upon Stalin—while his agents abuse us the world over—to pay court as a vassal asking for crumbs at his lord's table.
Let there be no mistake: That is what Stalin requires as the price of a temporary peace, the terms and tenure of which he is to determine. If he is so anxious for peace, why does he not come to Washington? Roosevelt met him at Teheran and Yalta; Truman met him at Potsdam. Stalin has never returned the visits. He has always decided where he is to be met. He has never shown anyone the courtesy of a recognition of priority. He pipes the tune; we pay for the piping.

Let there be no mistake: That is what Stalin requires as the price of a temporary peace, the terms and tenure of which he is to determine. He has always decided where he is to be met. He has never shown anyone the courtesy of a recognition of priority. He pipes the tune; we pay for the piping.

And so Stalin starts a peace offensive and the Red Dean of Canterbury comes to lecture us and Trotsky Lie issues obiter dicta and the chorus of Communists, left-wingers, soft liberals, cowards begins to sing the katydid song of "Peace! Ain't it wonderful!"
But a peace without justice is no peace at all. That the world learn at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam. A peace that drives millions of human beings into a slavery is a wicked peace. It is the peace of the prison, of the madhouse, of serfdom. It is a peace of humiliation that destroys the dignity of man, that deprives a human being of his human characteristics. A peace that robs nations of their national existence, that sets brother against brother in civil war, that suppresses freedom of thought and its expression—is no peace at all.

This is what Stalin offers, and that he offers only if the head of our free society will come to him and plead with him. Were it otherwise, Stalin would come to Washington, to sit in freedom among free men, without fear, without espionage. He could even walk our streets and see how free men live. He could read our newspapers, listen to our radio, attend our schools and colleges and note what freedom of learning can be; he could go to our variety of churches and rediscover the God he deserted in his youth. That indeed would be peace—the peace of God.

CAUSE AND TREATMENT OF NIGHT CRAMPS

One of the annoying conditions that interferes with rest and general health is a night cramp in hands and feet. To get relief, patients have to rub the muscles for a considerable time—only to have cramps return during the night.
There have been several theories regarding night cramps, one of which is that they are caused by products or wastes manufactured by the muscles during exercise the day. Another theory is that lack of calcium (lime) in the diet is a cause, although the usual symptom of lack of lime is tingling in fingers and toes.

That cramps are caused by the end products or wastes not carried away by the blood is the statement of Drs. H. K. Moss and L. G. Hermann in "American Heart Journal." These end products may be from overuse of muscles as stated above, or from diabetes.

Cramps occur where the circulation of the blood is poor, as in patients with varicose veins or during pregnancy causing a partial blocking of the blood vessels. Even these whose circulation is normal but who do an extra amount of physical work, or are on their feet too long at a time, often are afflicted with night cramps. It is during rest and sleep that the circulation of the blood carries away the wastes manufactured in the muscles during the day; but when too much waste is manufactured without enough rest, cramps occur.

Fortunately, Drs. Moss and Hermann have found a remedy for night cramps which will be greatly welcomed. It is quinine sulfate. From their observation, the quinine acts directly on the muscle fibres, rather than on the nerves supplying the muscles.

It is known that quinine, in small or ordinary doses, stimulates the circulation by increasing the power of the heartbeat and raising the blood pressure. By relaxing the muscle, thus relieving the cramp, and then by increasing the power of the heart itself and increasing the pressure of the blood, it means that the waste products soon are carried away from hands and feet—thus getting rid of the cramps.

that they are wrong.

The excitement in the far corners of the world, including our own country, attending the birth of a child to the Princess Elizabeth in England, is a mark of the importance of the British Crown to the world. Throughout the Empire the affection and loyalty of the people for the royal family make a tie which binds far lands to the British Crown as nothing else could. The great interest in Elizabeth's baby is a symptom of that affection and loyalty.

Few men of this generation have done as much good as the unsung inventor of the traffic light.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round
By Drew Pearson

Washington—Only one group of people since Nov. 2 have redder faces than the pollsters—the big businessmen who feathered their nests with Dewey's friends.
Take, for instance, the sad case of delightful Lewis Rosenstiel, head of Schenley's giant distilling company. As one of the leading whiskey and wine producers in the U.S.A., Mr. Rosenstiel was interested in having an "in" with the new administration. It was not unnatural therefore that he should busy himself before election in winning and dining various prospective members of the Dewey cabinet.

Mr. Rosenstiel's motto is to leave no stone unturned. He is a successful businessman and he did not become one by accident. He believed in looking ahead. Therefore, not long before election, he looked ahead and retained Herbert Brownell, campaign manager for Mr. Dewey, as his attorney.

Looking still further ahead, he also retained as his public relations counselor Carl Byoir, a pro-Republican gentleman with pipelines into the Deweyites.
Then to make sure his position with the new administration was secure he invited Dewey to go yachting with him right after the election to get a little post-election rest. Dewey was dated up for a vacation with Roger Struss of American Smelting and Refining, so Rosenstiel took the next best. He invited Dewey's right-hand man, Paul Lockwood, to go yachting.

Paul accepted. Both Rosenstiel and Lockwood are enterprising gentlemen, but neither felt much like entertaining the other on that post-election trip.

Various cabinet members, all set to resign, are now angling to remain. One is Secretary Commerce Sawyer, who gave only $1,000 to the Truman campaign—though one of the wealthiest men in Ohio. Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan ambassador in Europe, has sent an urgent cable to President Truman asking permission to come home to discuss a wide range of subjects. (Friends say he wants to be secretary of state.)
If Attorney General Tom Clark is elevated to the Supreme Court, the next attorney general will be either Clark Clifford or Alex Campbell, hard-driving head of the Criminal Division. Here's one cabinet revision being discussed by the dopesters: Chief Justice Fred Vinson to be secretary of state; Attorney General Tom Clark to the Supreme Court as associate justice; William O. Douglas to be chief justice. (Wouldn't that burn Felix Frankfurter up?)

Albert Greenfield, the big Philadelphia real estate man, is in line for either the Truman cabinet or an embassy.

Another Dolly Gann Row?
Capital hostesses, who haven't enjoyed a good social row since the days of Dolly Gann and Alice Langworthy's spat, over who should sit where at dinner, have been glowing with anticipation over the problem of who will be Vice President. Barkley's official hostess, and where she will rank at official dinners.
Vice President Barkley, like Vice President Charlie Curtis, is a widower. That was why Curtis' half-sister, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, was made his official hostess. And it was the question of whether the vice president's sister or the wife of Speaker Longworth preceded the other at dinner which threw social Washington into such a hubbub during the Hoover administration.

However, it looks as if Alben Barkley would disappoint the ladies. Alben is not averse to going out to dinner. In fact, he is in great demand. But he doesn't relish social rows.

Furthermore, his counterpart is also single—Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn. Close friends, Sam and Alben have been going out together as widowers for so long that the idea of their rowing over protocol brings smiles to those who know them.

Sam was married once, so long ago that most people think he was always a bachelor. He has no official hostess and doesn't intend to have one.

Barkley, whose wife was an invalid for many years before she died, also goes to dinner on his own. Barkley says he's had a "number of applicants" for the job, but if he needs an official hostess, he will draft his daughter, gracious Mrs. Max Truitt.

Merry-Go-Round
All American ambassadors have received cables from the State Department reminding them that it's customary to submit their resignations. Truman wants a free hand to select new diplomats. U. S. Ambassador to Moscow Bodell Smith has been pulling wires to get General Clark's job as commander in Berlin. He's not likely to succeed. Not all of President Truman's callers get into the newspapers. One significant secret caller was Chicago's Democratic Boss, Jesse Arvey, the man who helped Truman carry the surprise state—Indiana.

President Truman's old bootleg friend from the Kansas City Union Station, feels that the election guarantees his future. Maragon is trying to hire one of the fanciest office suites in Washington for William Helis, the New Orleans oil man. (Maragon is supposed to run the Helis office in Washington.)

Under the Dome
Senator McClellan of Arkansas, one of the most reactionary diehards on Capitol Hill, is slated to take over Senator Ferguson's investigating committee. McClellan is so at Truman for ousting his friend Nat Dyke from the Home Loan Bank Board and friends say the Senator is planning to smear any government department that backs major legislation he doesn't happen to like—especially civil rights.

Phil Murray and William Green of the C.I.O.-A.F.L. have sent a stiff protest to President Truman against making Senator Lucas of Illinois majority leader of the Senate. (Lucas voted for the Taft-Hartley Act.) However, Lucas will probably get the job just the same. He faces a re-election battle in 1950—an off-year which makes for strong Republican showings and the Democrats want to give him plenty of help.

Gerald B. Winrod of Wichita, Kansas, formerly his director for sedition against his country, has been trying to buy time once a week on Washington radio stations. His agent tells station managers this is a "program I believe your station will be proud to have." Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana has padded the Louisiana State Mineral Board with ten new members in a move calculated to let the political hacks and the party favorites in on juicy oil concessions. B. A. Hardee of Shreveport, now chucked out, had operated the board too conscientiously for the Long machine.

Labor Leaders Are Viewed as Having to Alter Opinions on Repeal of Taft-Hartley Act
By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Nov. 18—Labor leaders who have been hoping to stampee the next Congress with the cry that the people voted to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act without any substitute except the old Wagner Act will have to revise their thinking.

Within the last few days the labor leaders—both the C.I.O. and A.F.L.—have stated publicly that they want an immediate repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act and then an interval of time while Congress considers a proper substitute.

This plan, however, now has been publicly squelched by Maurice Tobin, secretary of labor in the Truman Administration, who apparently is going to have a good deal to say about the kind of labor law that replaces the Taft-Hartley Act.

Maybe the Labor leaders didn't read very carefully what the secretary of labor said in his speech last Monday to the convention of the American Federation of Labor at Cincinnati, but he minced no words when it came to outlining the procedure that would be followed by the administration. He said:

"Simultaneous" with repeal, there must be substituted a fair and just law which will encourage and protect lowly paid workers in unionizing attempts and which aid labor and management to maintain industrial peace under the processes of free collective bargaining."

The use of the word "simultaneous" indicates that Mr. Tobin at least has no illusions about the success of any proposal to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act and leave the country with only the old Wagner Act for even a brief period of time.

The strategy of the labor leaders, of course, has been to get the Taft-Hartley Law repealed, and then to hold their veto power over Congress as to what kind of law should be substituted for the Taft-Hartley Act's provisions. Actually, the situation is going to work out in just the reverse way. It is the supporters of the Taft-Hartley Law who will hold the veto over what kind of substitute law shall be passed. It is a safe assumption now that the Taft-Hartley Law will never be repealed until an agreement has been reached on the kind of law that will take its place.

For one thing, there are many cases pending in the courts and the status of the present National Labor Relations Board would be imperiled if the Taft-Hartley law were repealed without any reference to a substitute. The labor board consisted of three members before the Taft-Hartley law was passed and now it has five members. Two of these would be without jobs upon restoration of the Wagner Act while a long debate might ensue as to how that act should be amended.

There are other cases in process of litigation which would be affected, and it would result in a chaotic condition if provisions in the present law were repealed without a substitute taking its place on the same day.
As a matter of fact, after Congress gets through working on a new law, it is doubtful whether the law would be passed. The meaning except for campaign purposes. The Democrats will be able to point to the fact that they have "repealed" the statute, but as a practical matter all that will have been done will be to modify some of the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act and the old Wagner Act and enact a new law which will probably bear the name of some Democratic members.

The battle over the Taft-Hartley Act may be as important in the next Congress as any attempt to introduce civil-rights legislation. The political life of many members of the Democratic Party in the South is inseparably bound up with the whole problem of the unionization of southern workers. Just what kind of law will be passed it is too early to say, but it is a fact that 55 members of the United States Senate who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act are to be members of the next Congress. In the House of Representatives, the situation is similar. There are many Democrats who were elected from farm districts who will not favor a one-sided labor law.

It is more realistic to say the Taft-Hartley Act will be repealed or modified only when the supporters of that law have agreed to a compromise substitute. This will take time and it may be next spring before any agreement can be reached on the subject.

AS PEGLER SEES IT
By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The vigor of the Department of Justice in prosecuting Congressman Farnell Thomas, the chairman of the Committee on Un-American Activities, is a dramatic approach to the same bureau when we consider the attorney general's iron apathy toward the traitorous conspirators exposed by the Thomas committee. At worst, if he be guilty, Thomas fleeced a few thousand dollars and did that under a logical, if rather daring, extension of the common practice of nepotism on Capitol Hill. On the other hand, dozens of individuals, planted in secret recesses of the government were stoutly accused by stand-up witnesses of betraying the United States to the Russian enemy. The Department of Justice has ignored these cases.

Even Russian aliens implicated in the same band of conspirators have not been molested. And a few days ago Tom Clark, the attorney general, and Mrs. Clark, were photographed in happy social doings at the Soviet Embassy. This was appeasement on a personal plane but the bait of a snifter of vodka and a hood of camouflage at the post of the Kremlin is irresistible to most Democrats and the more so to their wives. Such susceptibility is not, as the lawyers say, actionable.

Thomas is charged with defrauding the government by kickbacks from real persons who were fictitious employees. He is a rotund hick of a vanishing American type whose social errors in the examination of witnesses were the honest patriotic blurs of the typical Main street insurance man, druggist or service stationist.

It was not by his doing that congressional procedure waived the tricky legalistic tangles of the courts. This method of getting information was there when Thomas became chairman of the committee, established, tested, and vindicated long ago. He just made use of it and the gruesome fact is that for all his prejudice against traitors and spies he is no less judicial and fair than many of the fully articulated judges of the federal courts now sitting.

The kick-back of pay has been common practice in Congress for decades. I dare say Mr. Clark, himself, has paid his tithe to his party for years, failing which he would be a miracle man deserving the dubbing adulation of Henry Wallace. All politicians pay in traitors and spies and even Truman sat on a county board in Kansas City long collected for the Pendergast machine a bounty called lug on every dollar spent for public improvements. His personal abstention from lug is interesting but doesn't amount to formal condemnation of lug as lug.

The late Ray Clapper once defeated many members of Congress up for re-election by exposing in print, the fraud, or in a sweeter word, the graft, which had become a firm pillar to the family income of statesmen on the Hill. The racket is still standard practice, no more disesteemed by public opinion than looting by major generals.

The most distinguished individual who has been caught at it, not that he tried to hide anything, was John N. Garner during

A communication was received from the Veterans' Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, asking for an appropriation of $2,500, the same sum which has been granted in the past. The request was made by Robert V. Stapleton, president of the Board of Directors. Filed. Supervisor William Kelsb of Wawarsing requested that money be made available to resurface and widen the Ulster Heights road in that town and for completing work on the Briggs Highway and also for a connecting road between the two roads. Referred to the Highway Committee.

A report was received from the Committee on County Commissioners of Public Welfare recommending that $33,660.21 be raised for Home Relief and Hospitalization as previously reported. A motion was made that the sum be levied on the various towns according to the amounts spent in each town. Over.

The Committee on Town and County Accounts reported unpaid sewer assessments in the Wallkill Sewer District amounting to $2,726.81 and a resolution was later offered authorizing the assessing of this amount against the properties upon which the assessment is now unpaid. Over.

Bills amounting to $976.84 were reported by the Committee on Public Health and Laboratory as being correct for audit and a resolution was offered that this amount be assessed on the county outside the city of Kingston. Over.

Bills and claims in the sum of $1,836.25 were reported by the Committee on County Judge and District Attorney as being just claims and correct for audit and a resolution was offered that this sum be assessed and levied on the county. Over.

Bills amounting to $647.94 were reported by the Committee on Commissioners of Election. A resolution was offered that this sum be assessed and levied on the county. Over.

Bills in the sum of $2,950.73 were reported for audit by the Committee on Sheriff's Accounts and a motion was made that this sum be assessed and levied against the county. Over.

The Committee of Highway Accounts reported bills in the sum of $3,159.52 and it was moved that sum be assessed and levied on the county. Over.

Chairman Cluett Schantz named as members of the Committee on Printing Proceedings Supervisors Baker, Hulsair and Kelsb.

A resolution was offered and adopted changing the name of the Non-Settlement to the Home Relief and Hospitalization Fund.

A motion was made that there be assessed and levied on the county at large $1,142.80, on the city of Kingston $17,341.52 and on the various towns of the county the sum of $32,517.37 to reimburse the Home Relief and Hospitalization Fund. Over.

Drury Is Re-appointed

Monsignor Martin J. Drury, whose term as a member of the Ulster County Board of Health expired on November 20, 1949, was re-appointed for a term of six years.

The Committee on County Commissioner of Health reported bills in the sum of $33,660.21 and it was moved that this sum be assessed and levied on the county. Over.

A motion was made that there be made available the sum of $100,000 for snow removal, $60,000 being transferred from the County Highway Fund and $40,000 raised by assessment and levy on the county. Over.

It was moved that $25,000 be raised on the County Highway Machinery Fund. Over.

It was moved that $65,000 be raised on the county for the County Bridge Fund. Over.

It was moved that $50,000 be raised on the county for the County Road Fund. A similar amount it contributed by the state. Over.

On motion properties in Wawarsing and Ulster which had been omitted from the 1947 tax rolls were placed on the 1948 rolls, the 1947 taxes to be collected this year at the 1947 rate.

Over. Motions were made that $700 be raised on each of the four supervisory districts of the county to pay the increased salary of the district superintendents. Over.

A resolution was offered for adoption of the various town budgets. These budgets have been posted in the towns and public hearings held. The total amount of the town budgets, exclusive of the highways and health items, are:

Denning $21,617. Esopus $22,897.88. Gardiner $20,202. Hardenbergh $10,920. Hurley $12,303.47. Kingston $4,453.58. Lloyd $38,086.50. Marlborough $18,540. Marlborough $17,389.80. Publicity Report

The Ulster County Publicity Committee also made its annual report, recommending that the appropriation of $3,100 be increased to $3,500 for 1949 to give additional funds to meet increased costs and to better meet the competition which the local vacation area must meet due to ability of people to travel greater distances.

In the report it was stated that during the past year the committee had advertised in several metropolitan newspapers, cooperated with the national and state travel agencies and had secured publicity for this area in papers having a combined circulation of 30,000,000. The committee had printed $35,000 folders which were distributed free through 187 agencies including travel bureaus, transportation companies, newspaper travel bureaus, stores, automobile associations, oil companies, Chambers of Commerce and other means. Winter sport folders were also distributed. There was received a total of 2366 direct inquiries from people in 43 states regarding vacation facilities in this area.

In addition to the folders published by the county committee many local townships and areas also published folders. The committee is now printing 10,000 winter sport folders which will feature Phoenicia, Ellenville, Highmount, Pine Hill, Rosendale, Woodstock, Saugerties and other winter sport centers. These will be distributed through New York and New Jersey.

During the past season from April 25 to June 20 there was carried 1266 lines of advertising in metropolitan newspapers advertising the Ulster-Greene Vacationland area.

There was wide circulation of the folders printed by the 15 townships and local communities. The local committee cooperated with the New York State Division of Publicity and in the state booklets this region was very well represented with pictures and items. As a result many inquiries were received through the state publications. As the result of entertaining the Travel Editors in 1947, this area received wide publicity through articles the latter wrote. A total of 2,900 lines of publicity from Boston to Washington was the result of this entertainment of the editors.

In spite of the wide publicity given, this area business was slightly off from the peak years when people, because of lack of gasoline or ability to travel spent vacations closer to home. This was general in many localities where in some instances the loss was as much as 35 per cent. Locally it was off about 20 per cent.

The report stated that there was need for a "Clean-up, Dress-up campaign" throughout the area and a better recreational program as well as a need to re-establish the "old time" hospitality.

The committee had a balance of $347.35 at the end of 1947. The appropriation was $3,100. During the year 1948 to October 31, there was expended $2,829.23 and an additional $411 will be spent between now and January 1, 1949, to leave an estimated balance of $712 in the fund at the end of the year.

Clerk Simpson announced that the annual inspection of the Tuberculosis Hospital will be held at 5:30 on Wednesday, December 1. Committee on salaries will meet Friday at 3:30 o'clock. The board adjourned to meet at 7:30 on Friday evening.

Leonard Resigns.

Munich, Germany, Nov. 18 (AP)—An American official here has resigned in protest against a military government order to return valuable art objects to Italy. Herbert S. Leonard, chief of the Munich art collecting point, said in resigning that the objects were purchased legally by Germans at a time when Germany and Italy were allies.

Leonard, now en route to the United States, gave his American address as care of Art Institute, Zanesville, O.

Buffhead Ducks

Buffhead ducks are small, like teal, and are known as "butter-balls" because they are so fat.

Vacant Seat Filled

Warsaw (AP)—The Polish parliament has filled the long vacant seat of Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, self-exiled leader of the one-time opposition Polish Peasant party. Parliament revoked Mikolajczyk's mandate as a deputy from the Warsaw district after Mikolajczyk fled to the United States in October, 1947. Wladyslaw Kowalski, marshal of parliament, announced the election of Josef Balcerzak to Mikolajczyk's seat. He also said Piotr Typiak had been chosen for the seat formerly held by Stefan Korbonski, one of Mikolajczyk's aides, who also fled to America.

Lost 8 pounds of ugly fat in 5 weeks, thanks to easy WESTFIELD MAID PLAN

How Westfield Maid Grape Juice helped Mrs. Mary Given of Long Island City, New York, lose 36% of her excess weight in 35 days, achieve a more attractive figure, without exercises, drastic diet or drugs.

WHAT A CHANGE we had in these unretouched photos of Mrs. Mary Given of Long Island City, New York, taken only 35 days apart. Note the loss of "frontal fat," the reduction in "side obesity." Mrs. Given says, "My excess weight was concentrated around my waist and was most unbecoming. The Westfield Maid Plan made reducing easy and I can truthfully say I have never felt better."

Unretouched photos prove Westfield Maids don't lie

FOUND REDUCING EASY. All Mrs. Given did to lose 8 pounds was to drink a glass, consisting of half water and half full-strength, pasteurized Westfield Maid pure Concord Grape Juice, as an appetite stimulant, before lunch and at 3 P.M., plus another glassful one half hour after these periods.

NO CRAVING FOR FATTENING FOODS. Thanks to the Westfield Maid Plan for Weight Control Mrs. Given was actually able to increase her consumption of protein foods and comfortably omit fattening foods without experiencing the customary hunger for weight-producing carbohydrates.

HER HEALTH EXCELLENT. Equally important, a thorough before-and-after physical examination and electrocardiogram, under competent medical supervision, disclose that Mrs. Given's health is as fine now as it was the day she started on the easy Westfield Maid Plan for Weight Control.

consultant Doctor Frederic Damrau reveal that the average weight loss of all women tested was 10 pounds per month, that the caloric intake was reduced, and further, that the health of all women tested was maintained or improved.

WHY WESTFIELD MAID GRAPE JUICE? Be sure you use pure, full-strength, pasteurized Westfield Maid Grape Juice, used exclusively in these tests. Pressed only from vine-ripened Concord Grapes, Westfield Maid Grape Juice naturally contains a different kind of sugar called dextrose which is identical with your own blood sugar, is quickly assimilated, helps you body consume excess fat. In addition, it provides increased energy and contains Vitamins B and G. Westfield Maid Grape Juice provides more energy than grapefruit, orange or pineapple juices.

Get Westfield Maid Grape Juice at grocery, drug, or department stores today. Westfield Maid Grape Juice is the safe, simple way to weight control; also a most delicious, healthful beverage for your whole family.

A.F.L. Enters Politics
On Permanent Basis

Cincinnati, Nov. 18 (AP)—The American Federation of Labor has entered politics on a permanent basis.

Delegates to the federation's 67th annual convention voted yesterday to collect 10 cents from each of its nearly 7,500,000 members to finance a propaganda and education drive of "Labor's League for Political Education."

The delegates acted as long as members because the Taft-Hartley Act forbids direct contributions.

The drive, with $750,000 working capital, will be centered in the nation's 110,000 polling precincts during the next 14 months.

The move was approved unanimously after Secretary-Treasurer

George Meany told the delegates that 172 league-backed candidates had been elected to the House of Representatives November 2 and 106 classed as "unfriendly" were defeated.

Meany said it was "a tremendous victory" and the "tide of reaction has been decisively turned."

In an other action of the day, a new move for merger with the C.I.O. was approved. A report of the convention organization committee proposed that the door not only should be opened to the C.I.O. but the A.F.L. should now reach out and grasp them by the hand and urge them to come back into the A.F.L. The C.I.O. was formed by A.F.L. unions in 1936.

Motions are twice as numerous from July to January as from January to July.

Legion Auxiliary
Backs Health Plan

Woodstock, Nov. 18—At a recent meeting of the executive board of the American Legion Auxiliary, Woodstock Unit 1026, Mrs. Aaron Hasbrouck, secretary of the unit and county chairman of the Auxiliary, told the members assembled that an erroneous impression had been formed by some residents of the community with respect to the organization's interest and continued support of the "Woodstock Public Health Nursing Committee since its very beginning."

For the benefit of the new members on the board, Mrs. Hasbrouck outlined a magazine subscription drive which has been held in the county for past three years, the proceeds of which are used for public health work in the county. The drive, conducted during the past summer, it was learned, netted $1,158.68. With this sum 10 hospital beds were purchased. "Two of these will be kept in Kingston in the County of Ulster Department of Health," she said, "anyone in need," said Mrs. Hasbrouck, "the other eight were ordered sent to the towns of Rochester, New Paltz, Kerhonkson, Highland, Olive, Gardiner, High Falls and Ulster."

"And," Mrs. Hasbrouck said, "the members of Woodstock Unit 1026, American Legion Auxiliary, have agreed to support a worthwhile project carried on in our community and we will certainly continue to follow this policy. It is my understanding that the Woodstock committee did not need a hospital bed. If they did, they had only to ask for it."

The subscription project was said to be a worthwhile one and will be carried on again next year by the Auxiliary.

A letter received from the County of Ulster, Department of Health, was read as follows:

"Dear Mrs. Hasbrouck: We were very pleased to learn that it was possible for your organization to present 10 hospital beds to the Ulster County Nursing Committee to be used in the townships named in your letter. It was a pleasant surprise to know that you were able to supply two additional beds as Mrs. McNamee had previously informed me that eight would be purchased. A splendid job was done by your organization and we want you to know that we appreciate this work immensely. The call for the beds come in at all hours of the day and they have been serving a very useful purpose in the county, as many patients have to remain home during their illness. The public health nurses appreciate the gift very much. Will you please convey to your committee our gratitude for all you have done for use so willingly."

Very sincerely yours,
ADELE DICKINSON, R.N.,
Director
Public Health Nursing"

Before adjourning the meeting, final plans were discussed for the food and gift sale to be held at Riley's store, opposite the village green, Saturday, Nov. 20, beginning at 9 a. m. This is an annual event, the proceeds of which are used for the unit's Christmas rehabilitation work for the hospitalized veterans at Castle Point Hospital. The sale will include many handmade articles as well as homemade foods and Mrs. Charles Watson, chairman, with Mrs. Harold Riley, co-chairman, have suggested that the various items which will be displayed would make stunning Christmas gifts, thereby serving a dual purpose, that of solving the Christmas shopping problem to some extent as well as giving happiness to hospitalized veterans.

9th Holiday Fair
Opens November 26

Woodstock, Nov. 18—Mrs. Rosalind d'Albis, chairman of the shop committee, Woodstock Guild of Craftsmen, will be in charge of all arrangements for the ninth annual holiday fair to be open Friday, Nov. 26, at the village green. Assisting the chairman will be Mrs. Ruth Emrich, Mrs. Ethel Moncreux and Mrs. Bert Wangle. Mrs. Wangle is coming to the guild in a new capacity as executive secretary and will have supervision over the educational department as well as general direction of guild affairs.

The Guild Center will be open to accept consignors' goods on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, from 2 until 5 o'clock and on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 22 and 23, from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m. Consignors have been notified that the shop commission will remain at 20 per cent as in the past.

Among the volunteers who have expressed their desire to serve in the Guild Shop during the holiday fair are Mesdames Mary Arndt, Josephine Barnard, Annmaria Boyd, Katharine Boyd, Ethel Boggs, Helen Buttrick, Margaret Carlson, Helen, Mabel Rhoda, and Evelyn Chase, Elizabeth Clough, V. Dawson, Lenora Dougherty, Christine Droggish, Katrina Fischer, Anton Fischer, Christine Grant, Alice Henderson, Marguerite Hobart, Alfred Ives, Dorothy Knight, Alice Lewis, Louise Lindin, Helen Mattson, Alice Marr, Eleanor McCreary, Elizabeth McCreary, Fredericka Milne, Ernest Miller, Mildred Parker, Nan Pini, Augusta Reed, Blanche Rosett, Malotte Rust, Emily Seaton, Margaret Sewell, Louis Segal, Esther Shulzer, Anita Smith, Jessie Stagg, Anita Stallforth, Besse Stowall, Pauline Summers, Edith Temple, Helen Thibaut, Alice Wardwell, Rosale Wilson, and Selma Wolfe.

Federalists Send
Telegram to Truman
Woodstock, Nov. 18—Woodstock

Chapman, United World Federalists, forwarded a telegram to President Harry Truman. It was signed by Chairman Konrad Cramer and read as follows: "On this Armistice Day we urge you to have our country take the lead in strengthening the United Nations into a general world government. The world looks to the United States, under your greatly strengthened leadership, to point the way to the necessity of powers adequate to create and maintain peace with justice, under law."

The Woodstock Chapter has increased its membership to 80 members and they have been urged to read the bulletin boards that are located in two conspicuous places in the village. Current matters being stressed by the national organization will be posted for the benefit of members and interested non-members. The boards which were constructed by Konrad Kramer are on the porch of the five and 10-cent store and at the corner of Fred's Delicatessen. Officers of the chapter believe this method will be more practical, particularly during the winter months, than holding frequent meetings.

McCarthy Exhibit

Woodstock, Nov. 18—Clarence J. McCarthy will open his fall exhibit on Friday afternoon at the S.S. Sea Horse. The room ordinarily used as a dining room during the summer months has been reconverted to use as a gallery during the winter months. Included in this first show of the season will be oils, watercolors and chalk drawings. The public is invited to attend.

Riding Club to See
Forward Control Movie

Woodstock, Nov. 18—Topic for the educational meeting of the Woodstock Riding Club on Thursday evening at Beardsville hall will be "Forward Control." A motion picture film of the same title by Captain V. S. Littauer will be shown.

The film will depict the accomplishment of good riding without any dramatic efforts. Another film to be shown is one produced by Charles Cooper, Woodstock, and taken at Calico Ranch on the occasion of the fall rodeo.

The usual closing period will be had at the conclusion of the pictures and followed by a social hour during which refreshments will be served.

Basketball Game

Woodstock, Nov. 18—The Woodstock Varsity basketball team is undecided whether its opponent for the first game of the season on Friday evening in the Town Hall will be Phoenixia or the Salvation Army boys. The only certainty is that the varsity promises to be even bigger and better than last season. The public is invited to support the team.

Four Deer Shot

Woodstock, Nov. 18—So far this week it has been reported that four deer have been taken in Wittenberg and two in Zena. The lucky sportsmen are Victor Lapo, Oliver and Ray Shultis, Harrison Rose, Mr. Russell, and Egbert Schultz.

Dinner and Sale

Lectures Given to Aid
Cancer Research Fund

Woodstock, Nov. 18—The third lecture in a series of six on American History will be given by Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker Monday afternoon.

noon in the home of Mrs. Anton Otto Fischer.

In her first lecture, the speaker covered the period from the War of Independence to Thomas Jefferson's term of office as president. Last week, the topic was Thomas Jefferson, and the third lecture will include the next four or five presidents, and events occurring during their respective terms of office.

Because the talks and discussions are held in private homes, the number of subscribers must be limited. The proceeds will be given to the American Cancer Society of Ulster County. Mrs. Schoonmaker, noted lecturer, is donating her services for this fine cause.

Winter Movies

Woodstock, Nov. 18—Motion picture films will be shown in the Town Hall Wednesday, Thursday, Saturdays and Sundays, during the winter months, beginning December 1. Sam Davis, Phoenixia, who has taken over the management of this field of entertainment, says that during the summer months, films will be shown at all times.

Around the Village

Woodstock, Nov. 18—Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Wilson with their young daughter left by train from Poughkeepsie on Wednesday for a visit of several weeks in Chicago with her parents.

Mrs. Margaret Kenyon went to New York Tuesday morning to be with her sister who is expected to undergo an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Fox entertained 56 or more guests on Saturday afternoon at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Berkowitz attended the Andover - Exeter game Saturday and remained in Andover for the week-end. Their son, Harry, is an outstanding player on the Andover team.

Several Woodstockers attended the opening of Edward Millman's one-man show at the American Associated Artists' Gallery this week when a party in honor of the artist followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Walters plan to leave this week for California where they will remain during the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Shultis entertained Tuesday evening in honor of his parents' 56th wedding anniversary and his father's 77th birthday.

Mrs. Latham Souther, Springfield, Ill., is visiting her brothers. Continued on Page Twenty-seven.

Sweet Strawberries
A farmer raised strawberries, always a good yield, always a large price. He always received a good price for his berries. But one year his crop was threatened. It had had the best of care and its quality was up to par. A frost was predicted. It might mean the loss of his crop. Something must be done, and quickly.

The man built fires in and around his patch. He remained up all night attending those fires. The frost came, but not to that field of strawberries. The man's vigilance and diligence saved the crop.

That incident carries its lesson. To win is to fight. To succeed is to struggle. If vigilance is the price of liberty, it is the price of all else. We must be stronger than our obstacles. It can be done.

A noted pianist at the height of his fame practiced several hours a day, saying it was slavery from which there was no freedom. But slavery to others was play to him. The best work is play to one who loves his work, drudgery in him who makes it so. Our willpower is developed in proportion to the way we curb and cure the tired feeling. Life's prizes can't be won without the necessary push.

Theodore Roosevelt and his "strenuous life"; Napoleon and his dictum, "There are no Alps"; Cromwell and his Ironsides; Sumner and his three requirements for success: backbone, backbone, backbone—all of these are of the spirit that gets things done.

The farmer's strawberries probably were sweeter that year than ever. Victory is never so sweet as when it is won despite difficulties.

A North Carolina man is located at a mental case because in recent weeks he has become obsessed with the idea that everything has been going to the dogs. Day if they start putting people in the bobby-hatch for thinking that!

Patients: "Why stick me in the ward with that crazy guy?"
Doctor: "Hospital's crowded—It's his trouble."

Patients: "He's out! Keeps looking around, saying 'No lions, no tigers, no elephants'—and all the time the room's full of 'em."

Recreation Group Invites Societies To Attend Meeting

All civic organizations of the city are invited to send representatives to the meeting of the Civic Recreation committee tonight at the downtown recreation department building, 97 Broadway. The meeting will start at 7:30 p. m.

Robert Cousins, general chairman of the group, announced the meeting this morning and requested all service clubs and other organizations in the city to be represented.

Although several improvements have been made to the downtown building, additional work is necessary before the project is completed and tonight's meeting will be devoted to the steps in having this work done.

The Civic Recreation committee was given the go-ahead signal by the Common Council last June when that body authorized a bond issue of $12,000 for necessary expenses in improving the building. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk will attend tonight's session and is expected to outline the items required before the youth hall is finished.

Government Will

another basic crop, but it will remain pegged at 90 per cent, so long as marketing quotas are in effect.

Brannan is not completely happy with the way the law took final shape. He said: "We need legislative provisions which will help the man who adjusts his acreage, while withholding rewards from those who deliberately over-produce," he asserted.

He said he will ask the next Congress for such legislation.

So far this year, the government has bought about 60,500,000 bushels of potatoes at an average of around $1.45 a bushel. The actual loss amounted to more than that figure out, however.

That is because the government tries to put the potatoes to some use, rather than destroying them.

So it sells them to commercial alcoholic plants—but the price is so low the government has to dig down still deeper and pay part of the freight costs to the plants.

Whether lower support prices will mean lower retail prices next year remains to be seen. Some officials said that if acreage is kept within the goal, supply and demand will balance out and the price may not drop sharply.

In any event, it won't cost consumers, who also are taxpayers, so much to keep up the price.

Parity—what this is all about—is a complicated formula for figuring what prices are fair to farmers in relation to prices they must pay for the things they buy. Congress says the parity price is fair to both producers and consumers.

Reports Killing Dog

Frederick Stratton of 84 Lincoln street reported to the police Wednesday afternoon that his car struck and killed a dog in front of the Brown florist shop on Clinton avenue. The owner of the dog is unknown, he said.

amount available for consumers will be even smaller. More birds are being withdrawn for breeding purposes this year, they say.

Furthermore, the supply in cold storage is down about 50 per cent from a year ago.

Chief reason for the shortage is the high price of grain last spring, when the turkey feeding season got underway. A turkey gobble, an awful lot of grain. A bird weighing 21 pounds will have consumer, at the end of 26 weeks of feeding, 92 pounds of feed.

Turkey feeders thought they might get caught with high cost birds. They couldn't sell at a profit. So many simply quit the business. Result: Fewer turkeys.

Trade sources said they hadn't noticed any increase in the number of small-sized birds, an idea urged by the Agriculture Department. Small birds taste the same as big ones and they fit into apartment house ovens better.

However, the idea of slicing a turkey into halves is gaining in popularity, dealers said.

Property Is Sold

Vincent G. Connelly, referee in a partition action brought by Lucy Sicuranza, plaintiff, against Benjamin and Agnes Sadagursky, Frank Samansky, The Ulster County Savings Institution and The People of The State of New York, on Tuesday sold at public auction at the court house the property located at Ulster Park, formerly known as the Knoll premises. Joseph Avis, attorney for the plaintiff, bid in the property for the plaintiff for the sum of $8,000.

DuMond Will Speak

Commissioner Chester C. DuMond of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets will be the speaker this evening at a dinner of the Ulster National Farm Loans Association to be held at the parish room of the New Faltz Methodist Church at 7 o'clock. The local office of the association is at 54 John street, Kingston.

Production of the four principal nut crops eaten by Americans now totals about 348 million pounds a year.

Charters Are Issued
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—State charters were issued to 1,591 new stock companies during October with real estate firms receiving the majority. The new charters, which included 325 new realty corporations, brought the year's total to 19,153. This represents 2,807 fewer charters than the 22,020 issued during the same period last year. Thomas J. Curran, secretary of state, said yesterday capitalization in 420 of the firms chartered in October totaled $22,218,000. He said 1,171 of the corporations were authorized to issue no par value stock.

Written for NEA Service

The beginner at contract bridge is apt to be confused by the playing convention that advises you always to cover an honor with an honor. Generally speaking, that is the correct play but, if your honor is guarded, it may not pay to cover.

For example, if the dummy holds a singleton jack and you hold four to the king, you should not cover the jack. However, the mistake most often made is the one demonstrated in today's hand.

Declarer wins the opening lead of the jack of spades with dummy's king, and leads the queen of clubs. Should East cover that honor with his honor? He should not. He has three clubs to the king, therefore he should not cover the first honor, but should wait until the second one is played.

If East covers the queen with the king, declarer can win with the ace, lead a small club and finesse dummy's nine-spot. Thus he will make all four club tricks.

If East refuses to cover the first honor, declarer has to lose a club trick, regardless of what he does. If he leads the jack of clubs, East covers and then West's ten makes. If declarer leads the nine of clubs, East lets it ride and declarer has to go up with the ace or West's ten takes the trick.

Two Killed in Germany

Berlin, Nov. 18 (AP)—Two persons were killed and two were injured last night in the crash of a British C-47 airlift transport in the Soviet Occupation Zone. Royal Air Force officials said today. It was the second fatal accident to a British airlift plane and brought the toll of British lives lost in the airlift to six. Thirteen Americans have been killed in airlift accidents. The airlift was operating at near normal rate this morning after several days of fog interference.

C. of C. Suggests Tax Relief for Small Business

The Kingston Chamber of Commerce believes that employment will be stimulated if small corporations receive immediate income tax relief. At a recent meeting of the board of directors a special resolutions committee was appointed. This committee, of which Raymond Garrahan is chairman, proposed relief action which was approved by the executive committee at a special meeting on Tuesday.

The following is a complete text of the resolution adopted and a statement of the anticipated effects of the action recommended.

"Be it resolved, that small business must have immediate assistance and we recommend that every corporation be allowed an exemption of $30,000 in reporting net earnings on their federal income tax return. Providing 60 per cent of such earnings are paid to stockholders in dividends.

We believe that such action as outlined above would:

1. Create better employment conditions and provide more employment in small industries;
2. Would mean more dividends to stockholders, the majority of whom would pay an income tax on those dividends;
3. Give small corporations an opportunity to compete with larger corporations having unlimited resources and borrowing power;
4. Ease the equity financing plans for expansion and improvement of properties and;
5. Ease the demand on banks to make loans for capital improvements and expansion."

Copies of the resolution and statements have been sent in the form of a personal letter to Congressman Jay LeFevre and eight other legislative leaders. The letters were signed by Mr. Garrahan for the resolutions committee and by Albert Kurdt, executive secretary of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce. In the letters "immediate enactment of appropriate legislation" was recommended. "If small corporations are to survive."

The Chamber of Commerce urges that all those interested make their views known regarding the proposal.

Brophy Is in Cast Of Musical Comedy

John Brophy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Brophy, 74 Andrew street, is in the current Broadway musical comedy, "As the Girls Go."

This is Mr. Brophy's first chance in a Broadway show and he almost didn't make the cast because of the national election. Originally Mr. Brophy was to portray Gov. Thomas E. Dewey but when Mr. Dewey was not elected president, the part was deleted. Now Mr. Brophy appears as a White House visitor. "As the Girls Go" is a Michael Todd production at the Winter Garden. It concerns the adventures of a lady president's husband in and out of the White House in 1953. Starring Bobby Clark, the comedy has received favorable reviews.

Mr. Brophy will be remembered for his singing in several local entertainments and for his achievement as an outstanding amateur entertainer. He is continuing with his study of voice in New York, although he does not sing in the current play. During the war he sang in a number of army shows while overseas. His wife and daughter, Nancy, are in New York with him. Mrs. Brophy is the former Miss Marie Rose of this city.

Drugless Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney, and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can now, hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results seven days after you start taking it.

DRUGGISTS. Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil, ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly twice a year.

WE HAVE all heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thonon in ancient Greece, where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank the waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL, which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste that you will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the intestines. It gets down to the root, cleaning and purifying, throwing away poisons—gas, toxins, acids and cathartics like physics, oils and cathartics do, but in a Natural, harmless, safe way.

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE you to try GEO-MINERAL. Go to your drug store NOW and make the best investment for your health. It may do wonders for you—make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

TRY IT! It may be the remedy you NEED! It may make the best investment for your health. It may do wonders for you—make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

SHOKAN NEWS

Shokan, Nov. 17.—Fred Adst is spending a few weeks in Gloversville where he is visiting his sister, Mrs. Adst. Mr. Adst, formerly resided in the upstate city and has many friends in that section.

Out of town deer hunters here for the week include the following: Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, young men; Eugene Isaacs, John Berberich, Bill Wilson and Martin Hughes. They are making their headquarters at the Pheasant Inn. Although Gene is a vacation visitor of long standing to Shokan, his companions are making their first trip to the reservoir country.

The regular Thursday weekly prayer meeting at the Glenford Church will not be held on Thanksgiving Day evening. The Rev. Wayne Williams, pastor of the Ashokan, Glenford and West Hurley churches, will emphasize the spirit of thankfulness in his preaching services on Sunday, November 21.

33 Years Ago
Thursday, November 18, 1915: Freeman Classified: "For Sale: White Chester pigs, 6 weeks old, $4.00 a pair. Frank Bishop, Stone Ridge." (Mr. B. was a native of Olive, and a resident of Shokan in late waterworks days. Four dollars, today, might buy one-quarter of a juvenile squalor on the hoof, or, might not.) Delaware, whose farmers have had their share of this menace, becomes rather alarming. At East Meredith, a farmer, Kenneth Kelso, summoned a physician to inoculate himself, his wife, a farmhand and a neighbor, all of whom had been exposed to the infected cattle. The four persons were given daily injections for 14 days. Foxes are blamed for these new troubles down on the farm.

Men of Ulster
Charles Isham, member of a family long prominent in the business and industrial life of North-east Ulster in the 19th Century, was born at Colchester, Conn., August 20, 1784, son of Samuel and Mary Isham. He came early in life to Shandaken where he remained but a short time before removing to Bristol (now Malden) on the Hudson river. He formed a partnership with his brother, Giles, and together they became interested in the tanning, lumbering and other industries which played such an important part in the development of Ulster county. The partners soon built up a large and successful business; they had a store and wharf and each year launched a river vessel that had been built for them. The "Wyoming," first propelled used for freighting purposes on the river, was built for the Ishams at their own wharf. It has been said of Charles and Giles Isham that "the magnitude of an undertaking never frightened them; they were always ready to engage in any enterprise that looked remunerative to them, never gave notes and always had the money to carry out

NEW PALTZ NEWS

New Paltz, Nov. 17.—Cecil DePuy was reelected master of the Huguenot Grange Saturday night during the annual election of officers. Alfred Schreiber replaced Merton DePuy as overseer when the latter announced he was not a candidate for reelection. Harry Ahlberg will again fill the office of lecturer and is working on a series of new programs. Others elected included Arthur Polhemus, steward; William Schreiber, assistant steward; Mrs. John P. Miller, chaplain; Irving C. Barnes, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Ahlberg, secretary; Daniel DuBois, gate keeper; Mrs. Henry Mertz, Ceres; Miss Louise Mertz, Pomona; Mrs. Douglas Alverson, Flora; Miss Jill Miller, lady assistant steward; Guy Gardiner, Sr., member of the executive committee for three years; David DuBois, trustee for three years. There will be some additions to the various supper and standing committees. The service and hospitality committee for 1948 included Mrs. Cecil DePuy, chairman; Mrs. Douglas Alverson, Mrs. A. H. Cuthbert and Mrs. John P. Miller. During the evening, Miss Mary Jo Ahlberg and Miss Mildred Palmatier and Norman Keller were obligated in the third and fourth degrees and now are members in good standing. A short lecture program brought the meeting to a close. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. David DuBois and their committee.

Congressman and Mrs. Jay H. LeFevre and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Glanz attended a banker's convention in Atlantic City last week-end. Proceeds of the annual Library Tag Day held Election Day were $225.78.

Gerard Byrnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Byrnes of New Paltz, is one of the 3,000 new students admitted this semester at Syracuse University. Byrnes, 1948 graduate of the local high school, is enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts.

The O.M.N. Sorority will hold its annual banquet at the Williams Lake Hotel Saturday at 7:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koenig will be the chaperons.

Jay LeFevre, Jr., is a patient in Doctor's Hospital, New York city, where he underwent a knee operation.

Miss Martha Sherwood, a student from the college, was a guest soloist at the Highland Mills Methodist Church on Sunday.

Miss Helen McManus, a student at the college, spent the week-end in Syracuse. She attended the Syracuse-Colgate football game.

Mrs. Andrew L. F. Deyo, New Paltz, has been elected the ninth district director of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs. Elections took place at the 54th annual convention in New York. Mrs. William H. Golding, Cobleskill, was elected president succeeding Mrs. Kenneth B.

Strayer, New York city. The state federation plans to campaign against comic books this stress crime and sex.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Reichard have sold their home on the east side of the New Paltz Kingston highway to Adelaide O'Connor, Valley Stream, L. I. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Keller left during the past week for a 10-day vacation in Canada.

Frank E. Low of Napanoch has joined the Arthur Pritche sales force, New Paltz. Low attended Vassar College for two years under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

The Reformed Church Ladies Aid Society will hold its meeting with Mrs. Clarence Woolsey, Friday at 3 p. m.

George Dammir has received a certificate of merit and pin for driving a bus eight years without a chargeable accident. Etting, Clearwater received one for five years; David Polhemus, three years; and Edward Bailey, Kenneth Tandegger and Edward Quick, one year each.

Sullivan-Shafer Post 176, has delegated a committee consisting of Ray Coats, Ed Curtis, Jr., and Kenneth Hasbrouck to study the organization of a community bugle and drum corps.

The Rotary Society of St. Joseph's Church will hold a food sale Saturday from 1 to 4 p. m. at the Ulster Appliance Shop, Main street. Members of the committee in charge are Mrs. Harold Follette, Mrs. Donald DeWitt, Mrs. Frank Van Gonsle and Mrs. Irving Millham.

Miss Virginia Duerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Duerr, Jr., of New Paltz, a freshman at Brockport State Teachers College, is among the 97 girls chosen to live in West Hall, the new dormitory constructed at Brockport this summer.

Twelve intercollegiate contests are scheduled for the newly-organized varsity basketball team at the college. The opening game on December 4 at 2:30 p. m. will be played on the local court with Utica College, a subsidiary of Syracuse University, furnishing the opposition. The schedule for the remainder of the season follows: December 10, Potsdam, home; January 7, Albany State Teachers College, home; January 13, Utica College, away; January 21, open; February 3, Newark State Teachers College, away; February 11, open; February 18, Albany State Teachers College, home; February 19, Newark State Teachers College, home; February 25, Plattsburg State Teachers College, away; February 26, Potsdam State Teachers College, away; March 4, Plattsburg, home. Except for the December 4 game each varsity contest played at the New Paltz gym will begin at 8:45 p. m. with an intramural preliminary at 7:30 p. m. Coach Loren Campbell reports that team practices are underway.

To Buy Warning Service

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Long Island railroad is purchasing a private storm-warning service—in hopes it won't be caught off guard again by the weather. Last December, the unexpected big snow played havoc with the railroad's operating schedules. The railroad announced yesterday it is buying the warning service of the Northeast Weather Service of Boston, a concern which claims it warned its customers of the big snow while the U. S. Weather Bureau here was forecasting light snow flurries. New York's department of sanitation, which also had trouble digging out of the December snow, is considering buying the service, too, a spokesman said.

Kaiser Buys Plant

Detroit, Nov. 18 (AP)—Kaiser-Frazer Corp. has bought a Phoenixville, Pa., steel plant in a move to bolster its steel supply. Edgar F. Kaiser, general manager of Kaiser-Frazer, said the plant was purchased for approximately $3,600,000 and the contract becomes effective December 31, 1948. K-F made the purchase announcement yesterday. The plant was bought from the Phoenix-Apollo Steel Co.

Mrs. Duane Dolan and infant daughter, Linda Jean, returned home from St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, Sunday.

As the Rev. John Straub who was to have charge of the services in the New Hurley Church failed to appear, John T. Mackey and Halsey Sherwood took charge of the services. William Topping, choir director, rendered a solo during the service.

The place formerly owned by Rose Belknap was recently sold to Louis and Florence Morgenstern by Thomas Tilson of Wallkill.

The Missionary Society met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Iva Low and daughter, Mrs. Myra Dolan. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Charles Jenkins and the program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Albert Cronk with the subject on Japan and the Japanese Americans. Several gifts were received for the Kentucky Mission Box which was packed at this meeting. The business meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. John W. Tyse. Mrs. Germain Smith joined the society. Twenty members were present. At the close refreshments were served by Mrs. Low and Mrs.

Dolan. The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clarence Spencer with Mrs. Alfred Wager as the leader. Each member is requested to bring something to be sold as a Christmas gift or something in the line of baked goods. Glean chowder will be made by Mrs. Charles Jenkins and Mrs. Albert Cronk. Orders will not be taken after December 5. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Albert Cronk, Wallkill 3-1169 or Mrs. Charles Jenkins, Wallkill 3-1161. Containers must be furnished.

Members of the Young Women's Club were entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Dennison with Mrs. Arnold Pertschnigg as the assistant hostess. The president, Doris Nadley, presided. At this meeting a number of gifts were received for the Winnebago Mission Box. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. The place for the December meeting will be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dolan and family are enjoying a two weeks vacation in Pennsylvania, New York, Jeffersonville and Grahamsville. Mr. Dolan is employed at the Ed Masten store in Wallkill.

Will Aid Stricken Ship

Argentina, Nfld., Nov. 18 (AP)—An American Air Force rescue plane, flying engine equipment to the crippled army transport "Comfort," prepared to take off from this base today. The vessel, en route from New York to Bremerhaven, Germany, with 376 army personnel, was last reported drifting 500 miles off this port after burning out bearings. The plane, a B-17 Flying Fortress, piloted by William P. Price of Hartford, Conn., left Westover Air Force Base, Mass., yesterday for this base with the needed parts. The aircraft planned to drop the equipment by parachute to the ship which reported she was not in serious trouble. The "Comfort" would have required coast guard cutters four days to reach the transport.

Showdown Ahead
At C.I.O. Parley

Portland, Ore., Nov. 18 (AP)—The national C.I.O. convention next week is going to be different. All signs today pointed to the likelihood of a public showdown with the pro-Communist element in the C.I.O. leadership. As a starter, the dozen or so members of the executive board who supported Henry Wallace for president are expected to get verbal bruising such as they never got at any C.I.O. convention.

They may get something more. Various C.I.O. leaders are talking about considering some form of action that would go beyond mere words. These plans haven't jelled into a definite proposal, but one thing being discussed is a convention resolution that would say in effect: "Either support C.I.O. policies in the future or resign from the executive board."

In the recent political campaign, the C.I.O.'s policy was against Wallace and all-out for President Truman.

Charge Is Dismissed
New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—A charge of third degree assault against Louis Mozien, 39, of 2916 Morris Park avenue, the Bronx, was dismissed in auto accident court yesterday by Magistrate

Charles E. Ramsgate, who ruled there was no evidence of culpable negligence. In court was Lee Hyatt, 25, of 61 Terrace Place, Floral Park, Long Island, victim of the accident which caused him to suffer amputation his right leg and right arm. He was pushed into the courtroom in a wheelchair by a male nurse from St. Vincent's Hospital. He told the court he wanted to withdraw the complaint but Magistrate Ramsgate said a hearing would have to be held.

Eisenhower Book Tells Of Allied Arguments on Primary War Strategy

(As an AP war correspondent, Wes Gallagher covered campaigns which General Eisenhower led in World War II, beginning with the invasion of North Africa and continuing through D-Day and the victorious campaign in western Europe. Gallagher is now chief of the AP Bureau in Berlin.)

By WES GALLAGHER

Berlin, Nov. 15 (AP)—If Britain's view had prevailed, there would have been no second front invasion of France in 1944.

This is one of the many wartime revelations in General Dwight D. Eisenhower's book, "Crusade in Europe," to be published Nov. 22 by Doubleday in the United States.

It was the Americans, and specifically General George Marshall and Eisenhower, who constantly insisted on the invasion of western France as the only means of quickly ending the war.

"Crusade in Europe" is the most impartial and complete picture of the war to date. Its main theme is Eisenhower's favorite one: that modern wars can be won only by absolute coordination of allies and their land, sea and air arms.

Most revealing in the book is the constant struggle between two schools of thought in fighting wars.

One led by Marshall and Eisenhower held that war should be fought from the viewpoint of ending it in the quickest manner possible with the least loss of life at the expense of all other considerations.

In the opposite school was Winston Churchill who constantly sought to change military strategy to achieve political advantages even though it might mean a longer war. Additionally, the British felt an invasion of strongly defended western France might end in disaster with huge losses.

Sought to Make Change

Churchill and his war leaders many times during the war sought to change Eisenhower's main attack plans. They accepted the necessity of invading France with reluctance, sought to postpone or change this conception of attack constantly in favor of making the Mediterranean the main war theatre and concentrating on attacking Italy and the Balkans.

Eisenhower and Marshall favored an attack on western France, with limited objectives, as early as 1942. This was abandoned in favor of the invasion of North Africa.

With Africa cleared in 1943, Churchill urged an attack through Italy and the Balkans.

"I could not escape a feeling that Mr. Churchill's views were unconsciously colored by two considerations that lay outside the scope of the immediate military problem. I had nothing tangible to justify such a feeling—I know though I was not alone in wondering occasionally whether these considerations had some weight with him. The first of them was his concern as a political leader for the future of the Balkans. For this concern I had great sympathy, but as a soldier I was particularly careful to exclude such considerations from my recommendations. The other was an inner compulsion to vindicate his strategic concepts of World War I in which he had been the principal exponent of the Gallipoli (Turkey) campaign," Eisenhower writes.

Churchill, Eisenhower writes, never directly advocated abandoning of the western front, but indicated that it be postponed until some vague later date. The British chief-of-staff, General Sir Alan Brooke, however, did intimate in 1943 his willingness to abandon the project in favor of the "Mediterranean" attack.

The divergence of views on how the war should be fought continued to the end. With Churchill advocating an all-out drive on Berlin in the later stages of the war at the expense of stopping operations in central Germany.

Takes Full Responsibility

Eisenhower takes full responsibility for not driving on Berlin, giving his military reasons that destruction of German armed strength was the primary objective and more important.

It is hard to quarrel with Eisenhower's military reasoning and equally difficult not to credit the foresight of Churchill's views on the Berlin drive in the light of subsequent developments.

Eisenhower also takes full responsibility for the recognizing of Admiral Darlan, which brought down public wrath during the African invasion. Again his justification is military necessity—a necessity which Churchill at least recognized privately, as the wartime British leader is quoted as saying:

"If I could meet Darlan, much as I hate him, I would cheerfully crawl on my hands and knees for a mile if by doing so I could get him to bring that fleet of his into the circle of allied forces."

Eisenhower's book will be a treat to military men in studying the strategy of the war and its campaigns, but perhaps the most interesting part of it to the layman is his inside estimates of the war leaders and pictures of them at work.

Eisenhower, once told this correspondent that he would never write a book, because it might make "too many big men too small."

The supreme allied commander has taken care in his book not to make big men small, but some of them do not appear as large as they might.

For a long time arguments have raged as to whether General Sir Harold Alexander or General Bernard Montgomery was the better British general.

Alexander Was Better

In Eisenhower's eyes, Alexander was the better. He writes:

"I regarded Alexander as Britain's outstanding soldier in the field of strategy. He was, moreover, a friendly and agreeable type; Americans instinctively liked him."

Montgomery he praised as a good army commander who inspired his men, and with a definite ability in setting up the "set piece battle."

Eisenhower says that twice during the European campaign, Montgomery tried to become supreme ground commander of both American and British forces, but does not mention a famous Montgomery letter to Eisenhower, criticizing supreme command failures and demanding the combined ground post.

Eisenhower said when he first met Field Marshal Sir Alan Brooke he thought him "arrogant rather than deep, and shrewd rather than wise," but later came to appreciate his military ability.

Brooke was British chief of staff. Eisenhower and Brooke had one of the bitterest arguments related in the book. It involved Brooke's attempt to persuade Eisenhower to drop his strategy to group all the allied armies on the Rhine before the final attack. Brooke implied the British were not being given proper support in the north and said they should be given all forces to drive north of the Ruhr. He ended up by saying he wished the Americans were in the north instead of the British.

"I am certainly no more anxious to put Americans into the thick of the battle and get them killed than I am to see the British take the losses." "I have not devised any plan on the basis of what individual or what nation gets the glory, for I must tell you in my opinion there is no glory in battle worth the blood it costs," Eisenhower retorted.

Brooke later praised Eisenhower's strategy and thanked him for not yielding to his (Brooke's) demands in this matter.

Partisans of Montgomery and the ever-aggressive American 3rd Army Commander General George Patton have claimed that if their respective heroes had priorities on supplies in the fall of 1944 with the enemy in full flight, they might have won the war single-handed.

Disproves Claims

Coldly and logically, Eisenhower demonstrates that neither could he have accomplished their claims. Montgomery, in fact, did get a priority and the help of the airborne army, but could not cross the Rhine. Logistically, the best Patton could have done was cross the Rhine with an extended spearhead which would have been highly vulnerable to attack. To do so, it would have been necessary to immobilize every other force on the front.

Judging by the frequent appearances of Churchill in the book, it is apparent that he was a constant visitor and dabbled in supreme headquarters' strategy.

Churchill popped up everywhere. He wanted to go to France on D-day. Eisenhower refused to let him. He indicated he would go anyway in a British ship. King George heard of the argument and is understood to have notified Churchill that if he insisted on going, the King felt it only right he should lead his troops into battle.

That kept the fearless war leader in England, but not quieting to forecast the Kasserine Pass. One of the important highlights of the book includes a full account of the complete failure of U. S. intelligence forces early in the war. Later, intelligence bungled in failing to forecast the Kasserine Pass.

Will Recommend Plan

Miami Beach, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—A plan for government health insurance "for everybody" will be recommended to the next Congress, a high government official disclosed here. Arthur J. Altmeyer, administrator of Social Security, said the plan will call for health insurance and not "socialized medicine."

Vigorous Protest Likely if Hoffman Loses Position

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—Any administration move to dislodge Paul G. Hoffman as chief of the European Recovery Program seems likely to provoke a fight in Congress.

President Truman recently took issue with a Hoffman policy decision to turn grain export dealings over to private traders December 1.

This, combined with scheduled conferences here next week between W. Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan ambassador at large, the President and Secretary of State Marshall, spawned a crop of rumors that Hoffman might be on the way out.

If he is, Republicans and some Democrats in Congress may voice vigorous protests.

One influential Republican senator, who declined use of his name, told a reporter today he and most of his colleagues would fight any change on the grounds that Hoffman has done a good job.

Their protests could be effective, however, only in voting on Senate confirmation of any successor Mr. Truman might pick.

Hoffman, an automobile manufacturer and a Republican, was reported to have been chosen to head the Recovery Administration at the insistence of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.).

While Vandenberg will step down as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, when the Democrats take over the new Congress in January, he will remain as Republican spokesman on foreign policy.

Thus few in Congress think the administration would affront him deliberately, in view of Mr. Truman's indications that he wants to keep major foreign policy moves on a bipartisan basis.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.) told a reporter he thinks Hoffman has done a good job as recovery administrator and ought to be kept.

Senator Murray (D-Mont.) said that while he knows nothing of any possible policy differences between Hoffman and the President, it is his general impression that the program is working out very well in Europe. He added that he thinks highly of Hoffman.

There has been some speculation that Mr. Truman might ask Harriman to take over the top job in the aid setup.

But many lawmakers believe that if the President has some new places in mind for Harriman, it might be in the State Department.

The President has made it plain he wants Marshall to stay on as long as he can. Mr. Truman has appeared less enthusiastic about keeping Robert A. Lovett as undersecretary.

The betting on Capitol Hill, however, is that Marshall will demand that Lovett stay on as his chief aide as long as the secretary remains in the cabinet.

Body of Nurse

thologist Alan R. Moritz was also due to view the remains.

Ossipee, N. H., Nov. 18 (AP)—The badly decomposed body of a young woman believed by police to be Ruth Eisenberg, missing Newark, N. J., nurse, was found last night in a shallow grave.

State police said clothing discovered near the body matched that worn by the attractive 22-year-old nurse when she left a Newtown, Conn., home July 20 for a five-day vacation in New Hampshire and Maine. She was employed at the Newton Home as a child nurse.

Medical Referee Francis Dube reported a preliminary examination indicated she suffered a crushed skull. The official cause of death and other details were withheld, however, pending further examination.

Dr. Dube said the skull and upper portion of the body were found in the grave and the lower section nearby. Police theorized bones of the lower part of the body had been dragged from the grave by animals.

State Police Major Dwight Comstock asked the girl's uncle, Jerome Eisenberg, a Newark lawyer, to forward her dental chart for purposes of identification.

The lawyer and the girl's father, Ephraim Eisenberg, vice principal of the East Side School annex in Newark, planned to come here today to assist authorities.

The girl was reported missing when she did not reappear at the home of her employers, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Drury, at the close of her vacation.

She was last seen by a neighbor of the Drurys who drove her to a Bridgeport, Conn., railroad station, where she purchased a ticket to Portsmouth, N. H.

Will End Vacation
Key West, Fla., Nov. 18 (AP)—President Truman plans to end his two-week vacation here Sunday. He will leave at 11 a. m. (E.S.T.) aboard the presidential plane, The Independence, for the four-hour flight to Washington.

The President is tanned, in good spirits and appears fit. He weighs 173 or 174 pounds, about five pounds under his top weight but six pounds more than when he first took office.

Fat is about 9.7 per cent water.

Netburn Store Is Opened

The public is cordially invited to attend the opening of the new Netburn Plumbing Company store at 726 Broadway Friday starting at 9 a. m. The downtown concern, with rooms at 73 Broadway, has been established in Kingston for the past 40 years. Both establishments will be maintained.

Harry Netburn, president of the present company, began the business in 1918 with a shop on Hasbrouck avenue. After 10 years at that location, he purchased the building at 73 Broadway and has continued to do business at that place.

Edward Netburn, son of the president, became associated with the firm in 1929 as manager and buyer. (Freeman Photo)

Traffic Light Is

Port Ewen Bus Lines, Mrs. Shaver pointed out that in the past it was "just impossible" for a pedestrian to cross the highway or for a motorist to get out of Salem street in the afternoon when the employees of the Hercules Powder Company left work. Now, however, traffic flows smoothly in both directions, she said. The light has proved itself of benefit to the three or four bus trips which daily come out of Salem street, she added.

At the Port Ewen Liqueur Store, it was reported that pedestrians were aided by the light in crossing the street to do their shopping.

Joseph P. Beichert of the Port Ewen Garage commented that the light, even though it is normally green for motorists on Route 9W, has a tendency to make the motorists drive more cautiously than before. He added that he has heard no objections to the light from local residents or from others.

No complaints or difficulties arising out of the installation of the light were reported as yet to the State Police at the Highland sub-station.

School Problem Exists
There still remains a safety problem in front of the Port Ewen District No. 13 school, according to Carlton Taylor, principal. A second light, already authorized, is expected to be installed at that point, he said.

This light, designed mainly for the protection of school children, will be manually operated by an adult designated by the school during the hours before and after school. At other times, it will flash a yellow caution signal. The light will be paid for and operated by the school district, under permission granted by the State Name Commission on September 14, 1948.

According to Taylor, the material for this light was shipped on Tuesday, and the light will probably be in operation by the end of next week.

Forsyth Auction

The Forsyth home at Fair and Pearl street will be offered for sale at public auction on Wednesday, December 1, 1948, at 2 p. m. by the Kingston Trust Company, trustees. For some time past, since the death of Ralph Forsyth, the property has been vacant. In the old stone house are 23 rooms.

Eisenhower Book

attack in Africa and the famous "bulge" attack in Belgium.

Eisenhower's account of the "bulge" battle shows losses at the end to be about even on both sides. This is in contrast to the claims put out by the War Department at the time.

With considerable self-satisfaction, Eisenhower tells how he shut reporters' mouths in Africa who had been speculating closely on the impending invasion of Sicily by telling them weeks ahead of time exactly when and where the invasion would take place.

On the role of the press in war, Eisenhower says:

"I believe that the proper attitude of the commander toward representatives of the press was to regard them as quasi staff officers. To recognize their mission in war, and to assist them in carrying it out. Normally, the only justifiable excuse for censorship is the necessity to withhold valuable information that the enemy could not otherwise obtain. During the War I personally violated this general rule by imposing temporary political censorship in North Africa, and by withholding advance notice of the eventual command arrangements in Normandy. Though my reasons on both occasions seemed valid to me, I never failed to regret what later proved to be a mistake."

One of Toughest Times

One of the toughest times of decision for Eisenhower came as D-Day approached. He had to decide when to launch this vast attack which could have been destroyed by bad weather in the midst of landing. On top of this Air Chief Marshal Leigh Mallory came to his headquarters to plead for the abandoning of the airborne attack. He had become convinced the drop would be suicidal. To eliminate the airborne drop would have completely changed D-Day plans.

"It would be difficult to conceive a more soul-wracking problem," Eisenhower relates. "I my technical expert was correct, then the planned operation was worse than stubborn folly, because even at enormous cost predicted we could not gain the principal object of the drop."

"To protect him in case his advice was disregarded, I instructed the air commander to put his recommendations in a letter. I took the problem to no one else. I went to my tent alone and sat down to think."

Eisenhower decided to go ahead with the airborne attack and it succeeded without undue loss.

The latter stages of "Crusade in Europe" deal with his relations with the Russians and Field Marshal Grigoriy K. Zhukov, Soviet commander. One interesting passage tells how President Truman suddenly during the Potsdam meeting promised Eisenhower to help him get the presidency of the United States in 1948 if he wanted it.

During an exchange of views with Zhukov on methods of warfare Eisenhower was shocked by the Russian disregard for life. Zhukov said his method of breaking through a minefield was simply to send his troops walking across it "exactly as if it were not there. The losses we get from personnel mines we consider only equal to those we would have gotten from machineguns and artillery if the Germans had chosen to defend that particular area."

While in Moscow, Eisenhower was invited to stand beside Marshal Stalin during great mass athletic exercises.

"This develops the war spirit," Stalin told Eisenhower. "Your country should do more of this."

MEET THE

Star Performer for '49!

You're invited to drive the New Hudson—the car that's nimble and rugged beyond anything you've known before!

"The modern design for '49"

HUDSON FLOORS are recessed down within the frame (as shown above), so you get more than ample head room in this car with the new lower center of gravity.

YOU RIDE DOWN within a base frame (as shown above), and rear seats are positioned ahead of the rear wheels so that full body width becomes available for wonderfully easy entry and exit. This new design completely encloses and protects the passenger compartment.

NEW AUTOMATIC GEAR SHIFTING in forward speeds as provided by Hudson's Drive-Master transmission—by far the easiest of all ways to drive. You can accelerate as long and as fast as you like in pick-up gear, then lift your toe momentarily, and you're in high. The shift into high comes only when you are ready! Full control on the instrument panel provides instant change to conventional driving if you desire. Drive-Master transmission is optional on all New Hudsons at small extra cost.

Come in, try Hudson with the all-new, high-compression Super-Six engine (the most powerful American six built today) or the masterful Super-Eight. Both provide wonderfully alert power for a new type of motor car with an exclusive "step-down" design.

Millions say the New Hudson is the reigning beauty in the automobile parade—but you can't really know this great car until you drive it—and you're invited to do just that—now!

Hudson, with the new, 121 b.p., high-compression Super-Six engine or the masterful Super-Eight, takes you away with new zip, and outstrips the field with staying power.

But amazingly alive engines aren't the whole story of this star performer for '49. Hudson has a new hug-the-road way of going in cross-winds and on every conceivable kind of highway.

This all happens because—as is widely known—the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have. Hudson has the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car!

This remarkable car has floors recessed down within a base frame (Hudson is the only car you step down into), enabling Hudson to build the lowest car on the highway, only five feet from ground to top—while maintaining more than adequate head room!

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin to ride, and this gives you a grand feeling of safe well-being! This feeling is further enhanced by the ease with which this car is operated, and by the quiet with which Hudson glides along.

Come in, let us show you why Hudson's great engines and fabulous "step-down" design principle put this car so far ahead it is a protected investment in motor car value!

*The many important advantages in Hudson's new "step-down" design are described in a booklet available at the nearest Hudson dealer's.

EAT WELL for Less

FRUIT DESSERTS OFFER A CHANGE

You'll give thanks for the delicate flavor of prune chiffon pie.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Staff Writer

After the turkey and fixins, a light fruit dessert is often more welcome than the heavier traditional sweets. Try either of these two recipes, created exclusively for this column:

Prune Chiffon Pie

(Yield: 1 nine-inch pie)

One-half cup water, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 cup cooked prune liquid, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/2 cup chopped, cooked prunes, 2/3 cup icy cold evaporated milk.

Soften gelatin in water. Mix together sugar, salt and flour in saucepan; add prune liquid. Cook stirring constantly until mixture thickens. Remove from heat; add gelatin, stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice. Chill until slightly thicker than unbeaten egg white. Beat with rotary egg beater until fluffy. Stir in chopped prunes. Whip evaporated milk. Fold gelatin into whipped milk. Turn into 9-inch baked pie shell. If desired, garnish with whipped cream and pieces of prune.

Florida Chiffon Pie

(Yield: 8 servings)

One and one-half cups orange juice, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 2/3 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 4 eggs, separated, one 10-inch baked pastry shell.

Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup of the orange juice. Put remaining 1 cup juice, 1/3 cup of the sugar and salt in top of double boiler and heat. Beat egg yolks until blended; stir in hot juice gradually. Return to double boiler and cook over hot water until slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Chill until mixture is slightly thicker than the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Beat egg whites very stiff; beat in remaining 1/3 cup sugar. Fold in gelatin mixture. Turn into pastry shell; chill. If desired, garnish with orange sections and whipped cream.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Sliced bananas and oranges, ready-to-eat cereal, codfish cakes, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Tomato-beef soup, crackers, pressed ham sandwiches, apple and cabbage salad, boiled dressing, spice cookies, fresh fruit, tea, milk.

THANKSGIVING DINNER: Roast loin of pork, brown gravy, cranberry and apple sauce, new sauerkraut, parsley boiled potatoes, warmed poppy seed rolls, green celery, olives, raw carrot sticks, prune chiffon pie, nuts, raisins, coffee, milk.

Ramirez Convicted Of Lotiti Killing

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—An all-male jury has convicted Julio Perez Ramirez, 29, of first degree murder for fatally stabbing Mrs. Vera Lotito, 36-year-old bride of an insurance company executive.

The verdict, returned yesterday, carried a mandatory penalty of death in the electric chair, since the jury made no recommendation for mercy.

General Sessions Judge George

L. Donnellan set Nov. 23 for sentencing.

Mrs. Lotito, bride of two months and part-owner of a travel agency, was found dead March 30 in her burlap-lined Manhattan apartment. She had been stabbed repeatedly and strangled with a necktie.

Ramirez, an unemployed house-painter, was arrested when he entered a pawn shop, preparing to pawn a coat belonging to Mrs. Lotito.

Actress Is Ill

State Teachers College News

New Paltz, Nov. 17—Edgar V. Beebe was the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Gardiner Parent Group Thursday night at the Gardiner school house.

Elections were held in the women's dormitory Thursday night. Those elected for the newly formed council are Kathie Reid, Helen Jacques and Bernice Cummings in the east wing and Mary Bell, Elizabeth Felner and Bess Levine in the south wing.

Thirty-five students answered Coach Loren D. Campbell's call for basketball drills on Monday. Players trying out include Tom Mahan, Jack Ross, Hal Ross, Dit Pulici, Godfrey Belavigna, Jack Roosa, Tony Peraccone, Jim Greenless, Lou Marvone, Ted Manolakes, Joe Foley, Herb LeFevre, Bill Yeaple, Bob Petrillo, Fred Ruthius, Gordon Jevons, Phil Howard, George Sorrentino, Harold Carroll, Owen Riggins, Jason Goumas, Emanuel Yris and Milton Jackson.

Jack Jackson, principal of the Oak Lane Country Day school of Temple University, Philadelphia, spoke at the P-T-A. meeting Monday night.

Speaking before the Book Club on November 6 was Rabbi Maurice Bloom who spoke on Jewish Literature. He also was scheduled to speak in several school classes today.

As a part of the school health program offered by the Campus Elementary school an immunization clinic was held under the direction of Dr. Robert Reid, the school physician, during the week of November 15 to 18.

Edgar V. Beebe, professor of education, was guest speaker at the monthly Parent-Teachers meeting at the Pound Ridge school on November 10. His topic for the evening was "Our Children: You and I." Several New Paltz graduates, including Cora Lund of the Class of 1939, and Ethel Silkworth Miller, Class of 1928, also were present.

The Science Discussion Group will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 200 of the main college building. Dr. Richard J. Ordway, assistant professor of science at the college, will show slides of various areas in the country, each of which illustrates a particular geologic process. Dr. Ordway will explain and interpret the slides briefly as they are shown. Many of the pictures were taken in national parks and cover such diversified areas and processes as the following: Landslide phenomena in New Hampshire, meteor crater, Arizona; Grand Canyon, Arizona; Bryce and Zion Canyons, Utah; Yosemite, California; Crater Lake, Oregon; Craters of the Moon, Idaho; Grand Teton, Wyoming; and Yellowstone Park, Wyoming.

Girls recently joining college sororities follow: Ago, Ronnie Bohana, Edith DeLong, Elizabeth DePuy, Natalie Fleck, Ann May, Betty Rojas, Betty Ann Rous, Stola Thompkins, Katherine Watt, Evelyn Weinstein, Archana, Joan Barton, Gladys Day, Barbara Harris, Philomena Sinagra, Muriel Sunbury, Artemis, Ruth Boyce, Mildred Costie, Marguerite Hummel, Marjorie Letts, Marion McMahon, Adelaide Vecchione, Clonian, Jean Buntz, Muriel Campbell, Evelyn Jones, Connie Mance, Dottie Parks, Germaine Ribi, Theta Phi, Jeannette Brattin, Priscilla Cummings, Barbara Kerl and Dorothy Schneider.

A play, "The Flattering Word," by George Kelly, was presented by the Paltz Players Tuesday in the afternoon assembly program. The play was directed by Anne Meltzer, a student director. The cast included Richard Burhan, Ruth Minard, Terry Tobin, Lorraine Baker and Ed Burchman. The production staff, which was assisted by the members and apprentices of the players and the play production class, consisted of Conrad Schwarz, stage manager; Edward Plog, chairman of make-up; Kitty Jordan, costumes; Charles Ghosio, sound and lights; Lois Gnatowsky, properties; Sue Korol, business; Millicent Long, publicity; and Clare Decker, prompter.

Penguin Was Passenger

Olean, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Passengers on an Erie railroad train gaped when they saw a penguin wander down the car aisle, bouncing on seats and sitting on their laps. Then they learned the Antarctic bird had pecked its way out of a cardboard carton when its owner left the coach briefly for coffee. The owner retrieved the penguin and explained the bird was one of four he was taking to Cleveland, Ohio, for a Christmas window display.

Air Feud Comes Out Into Open

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—A hidden chapter in the Navy-Air Force feud is out in the open with Secretary of Defense Forrestal trying to learn who exposed it to view.

Although it's no secret the two services have been at odds over aerial assignments—despite the unification law—what their spokesmen told a Hoover Commission group was supposed to be secret.

But someone let it out that Secretary of Air W. Stuart Symington did not like the way navy representatives presented their testimony last month to a committee studying proposals to reorganize the national defense establishment.

Symington wrote the committee chairman, Ferdinand Eberstadt, that the navy men had made charges which were a "challenge of the ability of the air force to accomplish its primary mission."

His letter to Eberstadt was published, along with Eberstadt's reply, by a number of newspapers (Scripps-Howard) yesterday.

Late in the day Forrestal told a news conference he plans to investigate the "leak" of testimony and the letters. He said these matters were supposed to have been for informal discussion only behind closed doors.

Despite several agreements specifying the wartime role of each service, the navy and air force have continued their rivalry with air officials claiming the navy pilots intend to muscle in on long range bombing assignments from far-sweeping aircraft carriers.

The air force lost a big round in the dispute last summer when Congress approved the navy's plan for a super-duper carrier of 65,000 tons or more.

It was the navy, reported presentation of its case for bigger and better carriers before the Eberstadt Committee which stirred Symington's ire.

The navy had no immediate comment on the latest controversy.

The air force said only that it did not release Symington's correspondence and will not bare any further details.

According to the published accounts Symington wrote Eberstadt that a "large part" of the navy testimony was an "unwarranted attack on the air force."

In his reply, Eberstadt expressed surprise at Symington's protest and invited him to appear again before the Hoover Commission.

He said the secretary accepted the invitation, but said in service, "the nature of Mr. Symington's testimony will not be made public by the air force."

Blizzard Strikes in West
Denver, Nov. 18 (AP)—A heavy ground blizzard, making driving conditions extremely hazardous, began in eastern Colorado last night and moved slowly into western Kansas and Nebraska. Five inches of snow were reported on the ground in eastern Colorado. Four inches were reported at Goodland, Kansas, with fall continuing.

'Countess' Still in Jail, Can't Cover $2,200 Check

Virginia City, Nov. 18 (AP)—The "Countess," who had no more luck with writing checks than playing poker, seems to have more blue blood than blue chips in her background.

"Countess" Honya C. A. Krasnodobsky is still trying to get out of Montgomery County jail. District Attorney Robert Berry said all she needs is $2,200 to cover a check she wrote when the checks of a poker-playing companion bounced.

Meanwhile, in Philadelphia Mrs. Hedwig Krasnodobsky said she was Honya's mother and recited a minor aristocratic lineage of her husband's side of the family, which came from Poland.

In four days of poker playing Burdette Beveridge, 39, Vancouver, Wash., wrote checks to keep Honya in chips. Beveridge was arrested on a bad check charge and was released and disappeared after the "Countess" gave her check to cover his. But Berry said her check had as much spring as Beveridge's.

Since then the "Countess" has been making transcontinental and international telephone calls to raise the $2,200.

Her mother said she couldn't help. Two weeks ago Honya got her last $300, Mrs. Krasnodobsky said.

Local Death Record

Friends may call at the chapel this evening.

The funeral of Pvt. John C. Schaefer, whose body arrived in Kingston Tuesday afternoon, was held from the Jensen and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Down street, Wednesday at 2 p. m. The Rev. Frank L. Gollnick, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, officiated. During the time the body rested at the home scores of relatives and friends paid their respects to the late veteran whose casket was banked with floral offerings. Several delegations of members of the Kingston Post Fire Department, led by Fire Chief Joseph Murphy, called and offered condolences to the family, and Eugene Scharp, brother of the late soldier. Members of Kingston Post, 150, American Legion, led by their commander, called Tuesday night and held the American Legion ritual. The cortege to Montrose Cemetery where the body of Pvt. Schaefer was laid to rest in the family plot, was exceptionally large. Before the flag-draped casket, the Rev. Mr. Gollnick read the committal service after which three volleys were fired and taps sounded. The flag which draped the casket was presented on behalf of the government to the family by P.F.C. J. V. Barvon, escort for the body from the Schenectady depot. The color guard consisted of Donald C. Moore, Robert Zimer and Sidney Lane. Bearers were Howard Shurtler, Morgan Ryan, Eugene Della, John Burke, Donald Hammond and Achilles Naccarato. The firing squad included John R. Mayone, William Bilyou, Robert Doyle and James Ferraro. John R. Mayone was the bugler. The military rites were performed by organizations comprising the Kingston Veterans Association.

Marshall Calls Monetary Experts To Paris Meeting

Paris, Nov. 18 (AP)—Secretary of State Marshall summoned American financial and monetary experts today from Washington and Berlin to advise on currency aspects of the Berlin crisis.

They will consult with Dr. Philip C. Jessup, U. S. deputy who handles the Berlin case for Marshall in the Security Council.

This step was disclosed by an American delegation source as emphasis in the blockade dispute shifted to technical aspects of the currency control problem in the former German capital.

The American experts are flying to Paris from the Treasury Department in Washington and from Gen. Lucius D. Clay's military government staff in Berlin.

The experts will have before them a questionnaire on the currency issue which Security Council President Juan A. Bramuglia of Argentina has sent to the Big Four nations.

Bramuglia is leading a Berlin compromise effort on behalf of the council's six "neutral" nations.

U. N. Secretary-General Trygve Lie also has initiated a study of the currency question by his own said today their delegation has not yet received any specific request for definite information from Lie.

The Soviet Union has declared it will not lift the blockade unless the Soviet mark becomes Berlin's sole currency. The western powers agree, but insist the Soviet mark must be under adequate four-power control when it circulates within Berlin.

French officials said the chief problem facing the financial experts is whether an adequate four-power control of the Soviet mark within Berlin is really possible.

They asserted that this is more important than any question of simultaneous action on currency and the blockade, since once an agreement on currency is reached behind the scenes it would be simple to arrange the "simultaneousness" of a settlement.

Under the four-power agreement on principle, reached in Moscow August 30, the four commanders in Berlin were to work out a currency control for the Soviet mark in Berlin. When this was finished and ready for application, the blockade was to have been lifted.

Bramuglia, November president of the council, has been working behind the scenes on a new formula for resolving the Berlin dispute.

His hand strengthened by yesterday's western power notes, Bramuglia conferred again with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky. They talked for nearly an hour reportedly discussing a new formula for ending the crisis.

Details of the plan were not disclosed, but it is believed to involve some form of gradual lifting of the Berlin blockade along with a similar process of instituting the Russian zone mark as Berlin's currency.

The separate American, British and French answers yesterday to U. N. Leaders Herbert V. Ewart and Lie, made lifting of the blockade a prerequisite to direct four-power negotiations.

Under the present circumstances, the western powers said, the Berlin situation is a threat to peace and must remain in the Security Council.

Ewart and Lie renewed their plea after receiving the western answers.

Proposes Use of Threat
Wiesbaden, Germany, Nov. 18 (AP)—Rep. Bishop (R-Ill.) proposed today that the United States use the threat of force to precipitate an immediate showdown with Russia on the Berlin blockade.

Bishop, a member of the House Armed Forces Committee, predicted the Soviets would back down in the face of such a threat with teeth in the air.

Two dozen B-29 Superforts with atom bombs and told the Russians to dance the rhumba why they'd dance the rhumba instead of the Russian dance," Bishop said in an interview just before flying to Berlin with other committee members.

Body Is Recovered
Lambertville, N. J., Nov. 18 (AP)—The body of 64-year-old Edgar S. Snyder was found today by rescue workers 10 days after the quarry worker was buried by a landslide under 200,000 tons of crushed rock. Rescue teams and special equipment have been at rock constantly since Snyder's disappearance. Snyder was another worker Raymond Wellman, 48, whose body was recovered shortly after last week's slide, were busy at the top of the quarry when the stone began to slip.

Unfair, Says Hogan
New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Center of the power feud within the C.I.O. Transport Workers Union broke in court today. It was put there by Austin Hogan, ousted president of New York city's big T.W.U. Local 100, a leader of a left-wing faction. He filed suit in State Supreme Court yesterday to compel the local to reinstate him. He claimed he was "wrongfully and unlawfully" suspended without a hearing.

Award Is Granted
Cleveland, Nov. 18 (AP)—New York's International (Edwards) Airport hold the Haire award as the outstanding international air line terminal. A plaque signifying the award was presented here Tuesday night to Howard S. Cullman, chairman of the Port of New York Authority, at the annual meeting of the Aviation Distributors and Manufacturers Association and the National Aviation Trades Association.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Stock prices leaned ahead today but neither buying nor selling was on an aggressive scale.

The market was far from one-sided. A fair number of issues slipped into minus territory while numerous others held unchanged. Gains of fractions to around a point, though, were in the majority.

Volume dropped below recent levels. Dealings this week have run around 1,000,000 shares for the day.

Investors focussed their attention on the technical side of the market, and such operations as tax selling and switching accounted for a good part of the activity. Favorable business news had a limited effect on the price structure.

Sold at higher prices were U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, Goodrich, J. I. Case, Distillers Corp., Electric Power & Light, Kennecott Copper, Dow Chemical, Du Pont (ex-dividend), Allied Chemical, Philip Morris, Radio Corp., Standard Oil (N. J.), and Pan-American Airways.

Two points and one-half were posted for National Steel, Packard, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Nickel Plate, Mission Corp., Montgomery Ward, Pacific Western Oil, Paramount Picture, and Loews.

Cities Service, one of the livehest curb issues, lost around a point at one time. Traditionally, it has been a favorite of the year-end dividend of $1 a share which would bring 1948 dividends to $3 a share from $1.50 in 1947.

Higher in the curb were Corden Petroleum, Clevenger Harves, Salt Dome Oil, Catalin, and Electric Bond & Share.

Driscoll, Edge Battle on Issue Of Second Term

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 18 (AP)—Gov. Driscoll and former Gov. Walter E. Edge clashed today on the issue of a second term.

Edge said his interest in the 1949 gubernatorial election "has been entirely predicated on the assumption that Gov. Driscoll would not be a candidate to succeed himself."

Driscoll replied that "my predecessor is apparently crossing bridges before he leaves for Georgia" and asserted he will make his own decisions.

Edge asserted that Driscoll had gone on record as barring a second term for himself, but a source close to Driscoll, supplementing the governor's own remarks, said:

"The fact of the matter is that the governor made certain definite recommendations to the constitutional convention and the convention did not accept them, and the action of the convention was later overwhelmingly approved by the people."

Driscoll suggested to the convention in June, 1947, that second terms should be allowed "future generations."

The convention rejected this idea, however, and left the door open for him to succeed himself.

Asked for comment on Edge's statement, Driscoll told a news conference:

"I have just finished a two-hour talk with Dr. (John H.) Bosshart (the state commissioner of education) and I do wish some of the time being devoted to politics could be devoted to the constructive consideration of the serious problems of government, including education, social welfare and highway construction."

"With respect to the issue raised by Gov. Edge, I have no comment at this time. I'll make my own decision and announce it in my own way. Premature speculation, however, will not help the party that in the past has been charged with concentrating more on politics than policy."

Edge, in a prepared statement issued so that "my own personal attitude be accurately presented," declared:

"I have not, as was the case in 1948, been searching for a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination."

He added, "as demonstrated at the last election, Republican governors may not be too easy to elect next year. Therefore, from a practical standpoint, as well as a token of appreciation of fine leadership, the claimant of Bergen county should be given very serious consideration, however that is entirely up to those leaders."

Edge said his assumption that Driscoll would not be a candidate to succeed himself "is based upon statements which the governor made in the past and during the constitutional convention of 1947."

"Premature discussion of next year's gubernatorial campaign," Edge said, "which was not sought by me, may well prove a disservice to those it was supposed to help."

Referring to Driscoll, Edge said, "to now attempt, in a strained effort to clear the field, to interpret the governor's various declarations as not binding or removing him from consideration, is an unfortunate reflection on the chief executive."

Either meant what he said or he did not prefer to accept his declaration at its true meaning which was the interpretation of every newspaper in the state. No matter who runs for governor, it should not be a case of running against Governor Driscoll."

Edge said when the question of gubernatorial succession was being debated by the convention, "upon invitation I filed a brief with the committee opposing the provision which was subsequently adopted."

(The constitutional convention changed the term of governor from three to four years, and approved a right to a second term. Prior to adoption of the new constitution in 1947, New Jersey governors were not permitted to succeed themselves.)

31 Persons Injured
Chicago, Nov. 18 (AP)—A railroad spokesman said today an "apparent violation of the rules" caused a steam locomotive to plow into the rear of a three-coach commuter train. Thirty-one persons were injured, none critically, last night in the crash-up at suburban Dolton, about 20 miles south of Chicago's loop. The diesel engine of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad's "Meadowbrook," rammed half way through a baggage car of the commuter train, operated by the Chicago & Western Indiana Railroad.

Takes Trip To Cuba
Havana, Cuba, Nov. 18 (AP)—Mrs. Harry Truman and her party arrived today on the presidential yacht Williamsburg. She has been on vacation with President Truman at Key West, just to the north. The Cuban president's wife, Mrs. Carlos Prio Socarras, and Minister of State Carlos Hevia went aboard to greet her.

Rigby Elected Kiwanis President

Harry Rigby, Jr., was elected president of the Kingston Kiwanis Club at the annual meeting at noon today. Rigby, who has served as vice-president of the club this year, will take office the first of next year, succeeding President William Leehive.

Other officers elected were: Maynard Mize, vice-president, and Fred L. Van Deusen, who was elected to succeed himself as treasurer. Francis J. Schilling and John B. Sterley were elected directors for a three-year term.

All elections were unanimous. H. Van Wyck Darrow was selected by the board of directors to succeed himself as secretary.

Captain Emma Brant of the Volunteers of America was guest speaker. She gave a short talk explaining the services offered by that organization.

Following the meeting, a rehearsal was held for the Kiwanis Kapers of 1948, which will be presented at the Kingston High School auditorium on Monday and Tuesday evenings, November 29 and 30.

Two Women Hurt In Local Crackup
Two women riding in a truck operated by Derooy Baker, 72, R. D. Accord, were injured when it was in collision on Albany avenue near the Masonic Temple with a taxi, owned by John Markle of Cedar street, and operated by Michael Kosowski, Hanrahan street, at about 1:10 a. m. today.

The woman, Hannah Baker, 71, and Mary Baker, 74, R. D. Accord, were taken to the Kingston Hospital where the former was admitted for treatment of a deep laceration of the forehead and the latter was treated for shock and X-rayed.

The police report said that the truck, headed south on Albany avenue and the taxi was pulling from the curb when they collided. The injured women were taken to the hospital by Vernon Cavill of Newburgh and Harmon Hoyt of Port Ewen, in the latter's car.

Uniform Vehicle Code Urged for Nation
New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—An insurance executive today urged states to adopt a national uniform vehicle code and cities to pass a model traffic ordinance.

The suggestion was made by J. Dewey Dorsett, general manager of the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, at a meeting sponsored by the Council of State Governments and the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Interstate Cooperation.

Dorsett told the 13th annual motor vehicle and highway conference that the toll of traffic accidents in the last ten years included:

Three hundred ten thousand fatalities; injuries to 10,900,000 persons; approximately $7,800,000,000 in property damage; and a $6,300,000,000 loss for medical expenses and lost services.

Containing life and property losses contributed to "widespread havoc" in the national economy, Dorsett said states should eliminate unsafe drivers and the cities should inspect motor vehicles regularly.

Major General Philip B. Fleming, Federal Works Agency administrator, said that a recent estimate for 1948 showed traffic deaths averaged seven per 100,000 miles as compared to 12 per 100,000 miles from 1936 to 1945.

Fleming, who is general chairman of the President's highway safety conference, said that further progress depended on closer cooperation between states and local communities to promote highway safety.

Says 'Tab' Are Kept
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Assemblyman D. Mallory Stephens said today the Temporary State Commission on Rents was "keeping tabs" on the work of New York City's Temporary Housing Rent commission. If city controls are not working satisfactorily, the state commission will recommend corrective legislation when the Legislature convenes in January, Stephens said. The former Republican is chairman of the state commission. An investigation of the city commission was ordered yesterday by Mayor William O'Dwyer.

Miss Campbell Is Bonded
Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—Miss Helen Campbell is under $500 bond to appear in court here January 10 on charges of conspiring with Rep. E. Parnell Thomas (R., N. J.) to pad his office payroll. The 63-year-old former secretary of the congressman pleaded innocent to the charges at her arraignment yesterday. Thomas is free under a $1,000 bond for the January 10 trial date. The chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee faces three additional charges of filing false claims in connection with the payroll case.

Is Hunting Fatality
Winnington, Vt., Nov. 18 (AP)—Lawrence E. Graham, 28, of Sea Cliff, N. Y., was listed today as the first shooting fatality of the Vermont hunting season. State police said Graham died from loss of blood after a bullet from an unidentified source wounded him in the thigh and stomach. A hunting companion, John Wiggins, told police he went for aid but Graham was dead when he returned.

New schools was the subject discussed during Wednesday night's meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of School 7. Taking part in the talks were (l-r), Harry Halverson, architect; Robert Herzog, member of the board of education; Mrs. Arthur E. Ouderool, president of the P.T. A. of School 7 and Arthur J. Laidlaw, superintendent of schools in Kingston. (Freeman Photo)

Pennsylvania Soldier Saves Japanese Miners

Sendai, Japan, Nov. 18 (AP)—Pvt. Salvatore Forte of Hatboro, Pa., was almost as big a hero in Japan today as Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Private Forte saved the lives of four Japanese miners buried in a cave-in for 12 days.

Their families and friends had given them up for dead. But not Private Forte. He was once a miner himself.

He kept digging. And he kept a crew of Japanese digging, down through a 100-foot high hill, to reach the imprisoned men.

They were dragged alive from their dank, dark prison today. All were exhausted and were rushed to an emergency hospital set up in a tent at the mine's mouth.

Doctors said they would live. When the cave in came the miners were near an underground fresh water spring. Its waters and 10 pebble sized pieces of candy one of them had in his pocket kept them alive.

The Japanese, who admire courage and know-how, bowed low to day to Private Forte.

Russians Institute New Pass System

Berlin, Nov. 18 (AP)—A new Russian system of uniform passes that may seal off Berlin's Soviet sector from the west takes effect today.

A Russian announcement, made last night over the radio and through the Soviet-licensed news agency A.D.N., said the new system will apply to the entire Soviet Occupation Zone and the Russian-controlled area of Berlin.

The Russians said that starting today three kinds of identity cards will be in use: For Germans, for those without nationality and for "foreigners."

Col. Frank S. Howley, U.S. commandant in Berlin, said the Russians had not notified the other powers of the move. He said the action appeared to him to be "more hocus pocus," but added that, if enforced, it could block off the Russian sector.

Howley said he believed district enforcement of the uniform pass requirement would be next to impossible.

He said the western powers would not go along with the idea because they had not been consulted.

Charges Dismissed In Long Island Court

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—

Charges of burglary and attempted assault against a former navy airman for allegedly attempting to rape the actress wife of imprisoned former Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers were dismissed yesterday.

Nassau County Judge Henry J. A. Collins acted on the recommendation of District Attorney James N. Gehrig, Gehrig said the airman, Warren Harding Hoffman, 25, was insane on Sept. 27, 1945, when he broke into the Meyers' home at Bayside.

Gehrig reported state psychiatrists as saying Hoffman was not responsible for his actions.

Mrs. Ila Rae Curmish Meyers fought off the attack and the man fled. Hoffman was committed to Matteawan State Hospital for the criminal insane after his arrest but has since been pronounced cured and released.

Gen. Meyers is serving a prison sentence in Washington, D. C. of from 20 months to five years on a charge of subordination of perjury—inducing another person to lie—at a congressional inquiry.

President Truman cashiered him from the armed forces last July.

Henry Stokley Arrested

Henry Stokley, 44, of East Kingston was arrested at the county court house this morning on a warrant charging violation of parole, the sheriff's department reported. The arrest was made as Stokley was completing a 10-day jail sentence for petit larceny which was imposed on November 9 by Justice of the Peace Percy Bush after Trooper John Metzger State Police B.C.I. charged Stokley stole a shotgun from the home of Leonard Benjamin, East Kingston. Stokley will be turned over to parole officers.

Will Give Advice

A representative of the New York State Civil Service Employees Association will explain sick and accident insurance to members of the Ulster County Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association Monday night at the B.P.W. lunch room on East O'Reilly street. A social will follow the business session.

Subway Service Suspended

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Service on the White Plains avenue branch of the I.R.T. subway was suspended north of Pelham Parkway station late yesterday after the peak of the rush-hour after a truck crashed into a pillar of the elevated line at Pelham Parkway and White Plains avenue. The board of transportation resumed service on the line shortly after 6 p. m. after engineers inspected damage to the pillar. The truck struck the pillar at about 4:45 p. m., causing a four-inch split in the support.

Gifford B. Wootton Weds

Pearl DuBois, West Camp
Miss Pearl DuBois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry DuBois, West Camp, became the bride of Gifford B. Wootton, son of William Wootton of Saugerties and the late Mrs. Wootton Sunday, November 7, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, West Camp.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and snapdragons. The bride was escorted by her father, Mrs. Kenneth Flicker, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Norman DuBois, brother of the bride, was best man.

After the ceremony, a reception for the bridal party was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families.

Footlighters Plan Membership Drive; Better Meetings

The Footlighters, Ulster county's civic theatre group, who have been gaining recognition throughout the county and Hudson Valley, plan an extensive membership drive. The group hopes to form the finest theatrical movement program in the history of the city and county.

At an executive meeting Monday night, plans for a revision of its constitution were discussed as well as new initiation dues and several other important matters which will be presented to the membership for approval at its regular meeting Monday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Plans for more entertainment at meetings have been approved and various speakers have been contacted for future meetings. The business meetings will be shorter and afford more time to actual workshop and entertainment.

A trip to New York has been planned wherein members of the Footlighters will see several of the hit plays now on Broadway. Plans were discussed to take their spring play to neighboring towns and to present it for any charitable purpose.

New members are always welcome to attend meetings. The meeting Monday will start promptly at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend so they may familiarize themselves with new regulations.

Crook-Bloomfield Marriage Performed At City Hall

The marriage of Miss Lulu Bloomfield and John Crook, both of 23 St. James street, was performed Wednesday at 2:15 p. m. at the City Hall. Mayor Oscar V. Newdick officiated.

Attendants were Beatrice Troin of Accord and Max J. Oppenheimer, 192 Albany avenue.

Mrs. Crook is employed at King's Drug Factory. Mr. Crook's employment by the Board of Public Works has extended over a period of years.

DON'T WRITE "XMAS"

I agree with the feeling of the man who sent me his objection to the abbreviation of Christmas. He says: "If there is any one word that burns me up, it is the word 'Xmas' used in place of 'Christmas.' When not necessary to save space—as it might be in the newspapers—I think it is one of the worst possible distortions. Perhaps if you'd discuss this in your column, sooner or later the use of this word would be forgotten."

As already noted, I thoroughly agree and hope that buyers of greeting cards and all who write Christmas messages will keep this admirable advice in mind!

Black Mourning Band

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband is being criticized by some of his business associates for wearing a black mourning band on his business suits to the office. They claim it's not done anymore in business because it is too conspicuous. We'd like to know what you think about this.

Answer: Although it is less of an exaction than formerly, I can't imagine how anyone could criticize this showing of respect, which for generations has been approved.

Ladling Punch

Dear Mrs. Post: I've been asked to preside at the punch bowl at the wedding reception of a friend. What are my duties?

Answer: You stand at least for a while next to the punch bowl and ladle punch and hand the cups to people as they come up. Unlike pouring tea, you do not sit at the punch bowl and you are not expected to ladle punch throughout the reception.

Nut Cups Not Approved

Dear Mrs. Post: Someone has said that you permit putting salted nuts on the tablecloth. I can hardly believe that you condone soiling the tablecloth in this fashion instead of urging people to get nut cups.

Answer: I never have seen nut cups on a perfectly appointed table. All my life I have seen salted nuts put on the finest damask. Nuts properly salted are not greasy.

Do you know what the "finger foods" are? Mrs. Post has written a leaflet, E-16, which gives table rules of importance. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

New Paltz Chorus Marks First Date For Year's Concerts

New Paltz, Nov. 18—The New Paltz College-Community Chorus will present its first concert of the current season Thursday, December 2, in the auditorium of New Paltz State Teachers College. The concert begins at 8:30, and there will be no admission. Everyone is invited.

Robert J. Strothenke, instructor of music at the college, conducts the group of approximately 100 mixed voices. Previewing the December 2 concert Mr. Strothenke indicates that the program will include two groups by the chorus of mixed voices, one group by the Men's Glee Club of the college who will be joined by male members of the mixed chorus, and a final group of songs by the mixed voices to herald the approaching Christmas season.

Modern, Academic Art Discussed at Athahacton

A review of modern and academic art was given at Athahacton Club Wednesday afternoon by Miss Emily Hoysradt. She had chosen as her subject, "Don't Know Anything About Art, But I Don't Like That." For reference material she used several articles which have appeared recently in magazines. She also showed several cartoons and paintings to illustrate her talk.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Harry Halverson, president. Miss Hoysradt, who was hostess to the club served tea with Miss Lillian Nelson assisting. Other members attending this third meeting of the year were the Meses. Charles Arnold, Hamilton Boyd, Vincent Connolly, Henry F. Dunbar, Herbert Elster, Harold King, William Kinman, Lloyd LeFever, Charles A. Terwilliger, Cornelius Treadwell, and the Meses Florence Cordis, Ethel Hull, Mary Noone and Louise van Hovenber.

The next meeting will be December 1 at the home of Mrs. Hamilton Boyd, 120 St. James street.

Keep a Stiff Upper Beak, Pal

Robins don't generally find stuffed olives on trees, so this frizzily fellow can't quite figure out if you should eat 'em or hatch 'em. This bird fell from its nest in Roseland, N. Y., and has been cared for by Shirley Dunbar, 12, since. It's thriving on a diet of hamburger plus an occasional olive. Elsworth Schell took this picture for the Newark, N. J., News.

Greeks Swear In New Coalition

Athens, Nov. 18 (AP)—A new coalition government of Populists and Liberals was sworn in today to replace a similar cabinet combination which resigned six days ago under the fire of dissident Liberals.

The cabinet again is headed by 88-year-old Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, leader of the Liberals. Populist (Royalist) leader Constantine Tsaldaris also retains the posts of Deputy Premier and Foreign Minister.

The new cabinet went into its first informal meeting immediately after being sworn in.

The Liberals took over the key position of Minister of War, which formerly had been filled by Populist George Stratos. Constantine Rentis, former minister of public order, was given the job, with a Populist under-secretary.

Several former ministers took over new posts in a reshuffle aimed at strengthening the prosecution of the war against Communist rebels. Criticism of the conduct of the war was one of the reasons for the fall of the old coalition government six days ago.

Episcopal Radio Series on Friday

'Enchanted Cottage' to Be Presented Over Local Station

"Love Conquers All" is the theme of Arthur Wing Pinero's "Enchanted Cottage" brought to the radio by the Protestant Episcopal families in this community on Friday from 8 to 8:30 p. m. over station WKNY.

Miss Gene Tierney, star of many Hollywood triumphs such as "A Bell for Adano," "The Razor's Edge," "The Iron Curtain" and a host of others, will portray the role of Laura. Walter Hampden, beloved veteran actor of the stage and screen and host on this series of "Great Scenes from Great Plays," will play the part of the old family friend, Major Hillgrove, and Richard Waring, long a favorite with radio audiences, will play opposite Miss Tierney as Oliver, the war casualty whom she marries out of pity.

How deep and abiding love works a miracle on a hapless, disillusioned war casualty, how love transforms a hopelessly plain, British school teacher into a radiant beauty—and how the physical transformation is still invisible to the people of the outside world—is the mystical thesis of the plot. It is a story of a modern miracle wrought by a good woman's love that transcends all obstacles and refuses to recognize any impediment to the attainment of its goal. It is also the story of glorious enchantment of a cottage and of how two people found their true selves within its ancient walls. A fairy story for grown-ups, perhaps, but also a story with a lesson which can be applied universally.

Loyalty Board Removes Woman From Post

Washington, Nov. 18 (AP)—A top official of the C.I.O.'s Government Workers Union has been suspended from her $8,000-a-year federal job on the recommendation of a loyalty board.

The action was taken November 3 against Dorothy Bailey, an employee of the United States Employment Service who also is a member of the executive board of America. She formerly was president of its Local No. 10.

Her attorney, Milton Freeman, said yesterday he is appealing the decision of the Civil Service Commission's Fourth Regional Loyalty Board to the Loyalty Review Board.

"This is a shocking miscarriage of justice," he said.

The U.P.W.A. is one of the unions whose leaders have refused to file non-Communist affidavits with the National Labor Relations Board.

Yule Program

Woodstock, Nov. 18—The committee in charge of the annual Christmas entertainment in the Dutch Reformed Church has selected Monday, December 20, at 7:30 p. m. as the date. Details of the program will be announced later.

Would Discuss Topic

Woodstock, Nov. 18 — Many persons who came long distances to attend the Woodstock Forum which had been scheduled to take place in the Town Hall, Monday evening, but which was canceled at the last minute, have expressed their displeasure to your correspondent, and have suggested that if, as occurred in this instance, those in charge find at the last minute that speakers are not available, the meeting be held in the form of an open discussion on the proposed subject matter.

Library Children's Day

Scheduled for Nov. 27
Woodstock, Nov. 18—Children's Day at the newly enlarged public library which is to be dedicated on Friday, November 26, will be held on Saturday, November 27.

Hostesses for the day will include Mesdames Wendell Jones, chairman, John McClellan, Hans Cohn, Irving Ostrander, Lewis Cohn, James Waters, William Pachner, Charles Bennett, Joseph Merr, Ralph Wickheiser, James Pabian, Joseph Forno, Reginald Wilson and Nick Fox. Refreshments will be served from 4 to 5 p. m. and all children in the township of Woodstock are urged to attend and inspect their new library.

One new room of the library has been set aside for the children and the shelves are filled with fine books for all ages. Many Woodstock authors who write especially for children have been most generous in their gifts of books to the library and have helped to create one of the best children's book sections in any library.

The public is urged to attend the dedication exercises on November 26 from 4 to 9 p. m. A special program will be presented at 5 p. m. including a dedication speech by Dr. James T. Shotwell. The Rev. Harvey I. Todd will preach the sermon.

Converge on Dunkerque

Paris, Nov. 18 (AP)—French soldiers and police converged today on Dunkerque, where 2,000 striking dockers have barricaded themselves behind cargoes waiting to leave. Other dock workers throughout France's vast chain of ports received a strike call from the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor. Interior Minister Jules Moch charges this week that the coal and dock strikes have been ordered by Russia. Reports from Dunkerque said the situation was tense. The government may try to take over the port later in the day. The strikers have dug in behind barricades of shipping crates, wine casks and paving stones.

Two Platoon System Key To Army's Unbeaten Team

The two platoon system devised by Coach Earl Bink at West Point has contributed heavily to Army's great success on the football field this season. Major Tom Mesereau, former Army star told about 100 members of the Kingston Athletic Association last night.

Major Mesereau said that limited practice time at the Point has always been a handicap to Army coaches. With the two platoon system, one squad is coached strictly on offensive play and the other gets defense work. In effect, he stated, that means double the amount of practice time.

Pointing out that the Cadets would lose only 19 out of 40 members of their "A" squad next year, Major Mesereau predicted that Army would have another good team to cope with a major league schedule.

Two new major opponents—Penn State and Michigan—will be on the 1949 Army schedule along with the University of Hawaii which is booked for the Michie Stadium, Pennsylvania, Harvard, Columbia, Fordham, Stanford and Navy.

The tall, good looking major told his listeners that there is no immediate prospect of renewal of gridiron relations between Army and Notre Dame. The topic came up as an offshoot of his discussion about the recent booking of the double platoon system by Yankee Stadium fans in the Stanford game.

Major Mesereau reiterated what has been said many times in the past—that the ticket situation for the Army-Notre Dame game had gotten out of hand.

Hates Davis Taps
Asked to compare the present Cadet backfield with the Tucker, Rowan, Blanchard, Davis quartet, the major said that Glenn Davis alone made any backfield a superior unit. He rated Davis among the all-time Army greats and said it would be a long time before the Army saw his like again.

Of the 1948 crop, Mesereau thought that Quarterback Arnold Galla would make some first All-American squads and certainly be second choice on virtually all of them. He also had high praise for Joe Henry, a guard.

Army's plebe squad was one of the best in several years, he said, and many crack yearlings will be available next season. Before addressing the K.A.A., Major Mesereau and the Army team physician, Major Myron Johnson, were guests of K.A.A. officials for dinner at the Stuyvesant.

Several reels of football films completed the program at the club headquarters.

Belgians Lead Races
New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—The Belgian team of Roger DeCorte and Andre Maelbrunck forged into the lead of the international six-day bike race early today as the grind passed the halfway mark. They went ahead by one lap after the lead had seen-sawed during a night of sprinting that saw 17 laps stolen. At one time four teams were tied for the top.

Heavyweights Top Ring Card Tonight

Following are the salient facts on tonight's B'nai B'rith boxing card at the municipal auditorium featuring Coley Wallace and Bobby Newkirk, heavyweights, in the main five-rounder:

First Bout—9 p. m. Doors to the auditorium will open at 7 p. m.

Tonight's meeting will be the second for Wallace and Newkirk. Coley scored a victory over the Quaker City boxer at the New York Golden Gloves tournament.

Five Round Bouts
Sid Barenson, 142, Canaan, vs. Jimmy Hall, Buffalo. Barenson has a record of 15 knockouts to his credit.
Dick Tuttle, 160, Gloversville, middleweight champion of the Adirondack A.A.U. vs. Jackie Monroe, Buffalo.
Jim Hardy, Canaan, vs. Ernie Keith, Buffalo.
Butch Albright, local middleweight favorite, will return to action tonight after a layoff, meeting Jimmy Simpson of Valatia in one of the three-round preliminary bouts.

Louis Tabs Bivins Toughest Opponent

Cleveland, Nov. 18 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis labels Jimmy Bivins the toughest opponent he has faced so far on his exhibition tour.

"I don't know why he shouldn't be a contender if he gets serious about his training," Louis said in his dressing room last night after engaging in a six-round no-decision affair with the Cleveland negro.

"He threw two good right hand punches and I knew I was hit, but they weren't hard enough to bother me," the champion added. "Anyone who fights him has to be very careful."

Cuts Louis' Eye
With both fighters using 12-ounce gloves instead of the regulation eight, Bivins opened a cut above Louis' left eye in the second round. Joe received the wound originally November 8 when he accidentally bumped heads with Johnny Shkor in an exhibition at Boston.

The cut bled only slightly, but Bivins opened it up again in the fourth.

Bivins did most of the leading, while Louis opened up only sporadically. He almost dropped Bivins with a right in the second when the two were in a neutral corner.

The champion jabbed most of the time and seemed content to take it easy, but opened up suddenly at one point in the fifth and drove Bivins to cover with a flurry of rights and lefts.

Although the exhibition was a no-decision affair, Matchmaker Larry Atkins conducted a poll among newsmen at ringside and reported the writers favored Bivins by a 9 to 5 vote. However, most everyone agreed that Louis had plenty in reserve.

Louis weighed 220 and had a 40-pound edge over Bivins, who appeared to be in extra good shape. A crowd of 10,086 saw the bout, which produced a gross gate of $47,591. Louis received 35 per cent.

Football Briefs

Tests Pass Defense

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 18 (AP)—Harvard will start tapering off for its objective game with Yale today, despite the fact that Head Coach Art Valpey means that his players are "terrible" on defense. He gave the Crimson its final scrimmage yesterday, defensively against the freshmen, who had their captain, Cal Lowenstein, demonstrating Yale's passing attack. Then Harvard polished its own attack against the scrubs.

Set for Finale
Hanover, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Coach "Bud" McLoughlin, who has been bearing down hard on defensive tactics this week, wind up Dartmouth's home football practice today with another such session. The Indians will entrain for their season's windup against Princeton tomorrow.

Cornell Drills Hard
Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—The Cornell football team is sharpening its defense against the single-wing style of offense used by Pennsylvania.

The Big Red squad also engaged in a long pass defense drill yesterday, its first day of practice since the Dartmouth victory last Saturday. Cornell meets Penn Thanksgiving Day at Philadelphia in their traditional game. Coach Lefty James altered his backfield by moving Paul Gironi of the Bronx from right half to left and putting Frank Miller of Atlanta, Ga., in the right half-back spot.

Looks to Air
Hamilton, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Coigate's aerial maneuvers against the Brown University football team Thanksgiving Day probably will center around Quarterback Ray Scott.

The 180-pound sophomore worked in the quarterback spot yesterday during the first scrimmage of the week. He has been alternating this season with the veteran Tad McLoughlin in the signal-calling assignment.

Michigan's Solid Defense Is Answer To High Scoring Football Opponents

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—When all the returns are in this fall, some college coaches who stress football offense over defense might well sit down and reconsider.

Prime examples of the strong defense theory are Michigan and Clemson, two of the nation's remaining undefeated and untied teams.

Rugged line work is Michigan's answer to high scoring football opponents, and the Wolverine forwards might be classed as the best in the country. The Michigan position has scored just 41 points in eight games.

Clemson Also Rugged
Clemson is right behind in the tight defense category, for the Tigers have yielded only 47 points in seven games.

Latest figures from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau showed today that Michigan was fourth in rushing defense, having given up an average of 82.4 yards per game. Clemson is 13th, holding opponents to a 106.0 average on the ground.

Two other major urban on-offits, Army and North Carolina, rank third and fourth in total defense, against both rushing and passing. Both have allowed only 167.1 yards per game.

Michigan opponents have completed 40 per cent of their passes, for 123.3 yards per game, but only three have been for touchdowns.

Tech Steady Leader
After leading for five straight weeks, Georgia Tech seems a safe bet to capture honors for the best total defense.

Tech is first in rushing defense, having given up only 56.8 yards per game on the ground. In eight games, the Engineers have a 137.6 yard average total defensive figure.

Following are the defensive figures:

Total defense—(Average yards yielded per game to opponents' passing, and running) Georgia Tech, 137.6; Maryland, 165.3; Army, 167.1; North Carolina, 167.1; Penn State, 178.0; North Carolina State, 183.3; Villanova, 184.3; Ohio State, 190.0; Oklahoma, 191.0; Vanderbilt, 191.0.

Rushing defense—Georgia Tech, 56.8 yards per game; Pennsylvania, 75.3; North Carolina, 79.6; Michigan, 82.4; Vanderbilt, 86.5; Penn State, 88.1; Minnesota, 90.6; California, 96.9; Army, 96.9; Georgia, 98.9.

Passing defense—Richmond, 49 yards per game; Northwestern, 52.8; Brigham Young, 53.1; Maryland, 53.4; Brown, 57.1; Hardin-Simmons, 57.6; Rice, 63.5; Utah, 63.9; Texas Christian, 64.5; Arizona, 65.8.

Williams Boxes Tonight

Philadelphia, Nov. 18 (AP)—Ike Williams, the lightweight champion who apparently thrives on action, tonight will take on his second non-title opponent in ten days. The opposition tonight will be provided by Billy Nixon, Philadelphia welterweight, in an eight-round over-the-weight at the Met. Williams, who fights out of Philadelphia although a resident of Trenton, N. J., scored a one-round technical knockout over Buddy Garcia on November 8.

Women Keglers Plan to Boost State Tourney Fund With Novel Contest

The Kingston Woman's Bowling Association today announced plans for a "Name Your Score Contest" to raise money to bring the 1950 state women's tournament to Kingston.

The tournament is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, November 27-28, at the Central Rec. Bowling starts 1:30 p. m. each day.

Rules as announced by Phyl Gehring, chairman of the contest, follow:

1. Entry fee is 60 cents plus pinkey tip. Re-entry permitted. Open to men and women, league members and non-league keglers.

2. No fouls will be called or allowed scored. All gutter balls must be re-rolled.

3. When the 7 or 10 pin, or both, are knocked down by the first ball and no strike is made, those spots will be covered by a red pin or pins. Any ball passing on the gutter side of the 7 or 10 pin without knocking over the pin standing on that spot will be considered a gutter ball.

4. Object—to bowl the score that you name in advance or as near as possible, using 10 frames, all of which must be scored. One game rolled on a pair of aloys completes an entry.

5. Prizes will not be listed as first place, second place, etc., but the first place winner will have first choice of the available prizes, the second place second and so on.

6. Ties will be decided by draw and prizes will be awarded immediately following the draw. Winners should be present or have someone present to represent them.

Fights Last Night

(By The Associated Press)

WEEK	Games	Wins	Ties	Pct.
SEASON	2994	2486	45	84.3
CONSISTENCY	2994	2845	50	96.6

The Last Quarter

The No. 1 game next Saturday will be Ohio State and Michigan at Columbus. Michigan should win by more than a touchdown.

But... will State pull a fast upset?

The No. 2 game will be Oklahoma U. over Kansas. This one may decide the Big Seven championship. In point of classic interest, No. 3 probably will be Harvard to skin by Yale. Another classic will be Lafayette over Lehigh.

Notre Dame is idle and the other leaders apparently have safe steers.

Bowling

Mayone Tops Booster
Al Mayone turned in the lone 500 series in the Booster League Tuesday night with two pins to spare. Mayone's 502 came on a string of 157-168-177.

Runner-up honors went to Harold Steeger, the Freeman thumper, who crashed in with 497. Other top counts were recorded by W. Slekter with 181-496; G. Burger 183-494; H. Houghtaling 173-492 and A. Cross 176-489.

High single honors were taken by A. London who fired a neat 210 in his middle game and wound up with a 452 series. The only other 200 was turned in by M. Dubin, who hit 201.

Costello Raps 630
J. Costello, No. 2 man on the Kirby Cleaner roster, led the field in the Central Rec loop this week with a gaudy 630 three-timer on scores of 204-193-233. His 233 finale also won him top single honors for the loop.

Of the top 20 bowlers in the Tuesday circuit, 16 were above the 500 mark. The second slot went to E. Robinson who fired a sizzling 231 single and 588 triple while Mike Milano came in third with his 217-560.

Other noteworthy totals were posted by Frank Russano 189-557; R. Ellis 201-536 and C. Beatty 184-530.

Evelyn Dolson, the first in the long line of local women bowling stars, led the Good Neighbor League with a 515 series Tuesday night. Her string consisted of 189, 179 and 147.

Two others reached the 500 bracket. Cora Emerick posted 162-163-184—509 for Elston's, while Bea Barley had 183-501. Evelyn Dolson for Gardenaid.

Other top scores were Dot Rawling 179-484; Helen Murphy 176-477; Marge Van Alstyne 164-463; Rose Mellett 166-473; and Carrie Mohr 173-460. Gardenaid had best team single and series with 840-2348.

Haulenbeck Tops Y
Jack Haulenbeck's 517 was top mark in the Federation circuit. The Central Hudson exec knocked off singletons of 160-174-183.

Five others achieved the "500" mark. Y. Edwin Thomas got his first on the Y circuit, an even 500 with 161-161-178-500. Jim Little shot 189-506. Dick Little 195-514, and H. Mikard 194-513. First Dutch's 676-1948 were high team marks.

Easy Does It

Six-foot, eight-inch Easy Ed Macaulay shows how simple it was for him to score 988 points throughout three seasons. The towering center will be shooting to add to that amazing total in his final campaign with St. Louis University.

cago) High School star suffered a dislocated elbow against Michigan State in the third game of the season. Trainers expected he would be on the bench at least three weeks.

He missed the Nebraska game the following week, but insisted on playing with his arm in a cast the following Saturday against Iowa.

Fischer started the last game of the season in 1945 as a freshman against Great Lakes. He has been a starter ever since.

Of the six-foot, two-inch, sandy-haired 235-pounder, Coach Frank Leahy has this to say:

"Much of our success this year is due to the wonderful leadership of our captain, Bill Fischer. We are proud to have him on our Notre Dame team."

Philly Eagles Set To Grab Bednarik

Philadelphia, Nov. 18 (AP)—Charles (Chuck) Bednarik, University of Pennsylvania All-American center, stands a good chance of playing before Philadelphia football crowds after his graduation.

The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League—who have had their eagle eye on Bednarik for some time—announced yesterday they had won the N.F.L.'s special bonus player draw.

Under this draw, the league's clubowners pull numbers out of a figurative hat for draft rights to an extra player of their choice prior to the annual draft.

The Eagles—admittedly in the market for a center—now employ at the pivot spot 32-year-old Vic Linskog who expects to turn to coaching, and Alex Wojciechowicz, about ready to retire at 33. The Philadelphia club already has draft right to two other outstanding collegiate centers—Northwestern's Alex Sarkisian and Vanderbilt's Charles Hoover. However, Eagle Coach Earle (Greasy) Neale has expressed the belief that his club would select Bednarik if the Eagles were lucky in the bonus player draw.

Huang Po-Tao's Seventh Army group. After government forces of General Chiu Ching-Chuan and Li-Mi entered the battle, Chang said the Reds were forced to withdraw.

The spokesman said incomplete statistics showed General Huang's Seventh Army group alone was credited with inflicting 63,000 Red casualties; Chiu and Li-Mi's army groups 10,000; Chiu and Sun Yuan groups 10,000; and the Chinese Air Force, 3,000 killed and wounded by the Chinese Air Force.

(Both sides often exaggerate casualty claims in China.)

North, east and south of Su-chow, the Communists have been broken into small groups of a few hundred each and are surrendering, the spokesman said.

Comeback Is Talked

The effect of the victory claim was especially noticeable in Nanking. Hundreds of officials and others who were packed and arranged to flee the city before the arrival of the Reds now are discussing a military comeback.

The military spokesman said the entire length of the Pukow-Suchow railroad is now in the hands of the government. (The claim is disputed by some neutral sources.)

British Consul-General R. W. Urquhart in Shanghai announced his government has no intention of abandoning British interests or telling its nationals to leave China at this stage.

(The first of two shiploads of 9,000 tons of wheat for North China arrived at Tientsin port of Tientsin. The shipment, arranged by the U. S. Economic Cooperation Administration, will guarantee continued food rations for the Communist-threatened cities of Peiping and Tientsin.)

3. The primary reason for the presence of the marines in China is to protect American lives and property. It is to be assumed that if shooting between marines and Communists should occur it would be in defense of these lives and the property they represent.

The current marine force of 3,600 men at Tientsin was what is described in the navy's announcement as "supporting aircraft," probably some fighters and a few aerial transports.

Unconfirmed reports from China say Chiang Kai-shek's government will move to Canton (1) from Nanking (2) if Communists capture Su-chow (3). ilities in the area to hurry Americans out of Tientsin, if that becomes urgent. Its Task Force 38—made up of two carriers, two cruisers and eight destroyers—has been in that vicinity for more than a month on a training cruise from the United States.

Meanwhile, two navy ships will stand by to take Americans out of Shanghai. The U.S.S. Gossett, a destroyer converted into a fast troop transport, was due there today from Tientsin. The U.S.S. General H. W. Butler, a naval transport, which can carry more than 5,000 passengers, is scheduled to arrive at Shanghai on Friday.

The reinforcement of the marine garrison and the evacuation plans served to point up the worsening military situation in China. It already had been emphasized by other developments. Generalissimo Chiang has writ-

Increased Cost Shown in Report To Supervisors

Increased cost of government is, in general, reflected in the cost of operation of special districts in the county. There is a considerable increase in the amounts which will have to be raised in many special districts to cover the cost of operation during 1949 of the fire, fire protection, fire alarm, light, water and sewer districts. Requirements of those special districts were laid before the Board of Supervisors Wednesday evening when the annual budgets for the special districts were presented and a resolution offered authorizing these sums be assessed levied and collected from the real property liable for such taxes.

The following sums will be required to operate the special districts of the various towns:

Drug Thefts Increase In State Hospitals

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—A federal narcotics bureau official said today increasing thefts of drugs from hospitals in New York state presented "a very serious situation."

Col. Garland H. Williams, head of the bureau's district office, said there had been more than 25 such thefts in the past year.

The latest, now being investigated by an agent from Williams' office, was reported yesterday at Jamestown, N. Y., General Hospital.

Morphine for which the hospital paid about $50 was taken from a locked basement room. The underworld price of the drug is reportedly 50 times as much.

On Tuesday morphine with a legal value of $300 to $500 was taken from the Ellis Hospital at Schenectady.

Williams said the federal bureau is seeking to persuade hospitals to adopt strict precautions in handling drugs.

Narcotics should be kept in a heavy safe with access to them sharply limited," he said. "Too many hospitals look at narcotics as only their legal value."

They forget that five ounces of cocaine for which they might pay $15 are worth $100 in the underworld in New York city."

Williams said there also had been thefts of drugs at upstate hospitals in Syracuse and Rochester. Recently a "tremendous quantity of cocaine" was stolen from St. Luke's Hospital in New York city, he added.

Some of the thefts were carried out with "extreme expertness" and undoubtedly were the work of a professional gang supplying a drug ring in New York city, Williams said.

Others he attributed to individuals who took jobs at the hospitals for the purpose of learning where narcotics were stored so they could steal them.

Several of the thieves have been caught and convicted, he said.

Dock Talks Are To Resume Friday

New York, Nov. 18 (AP)—Negotiations of striking longshoremen and their employers will be reopened tomorrow, with the government lending a hand through a high-ranking labor peacemaker.

The meeting will be the first joint session since the Maine-to-Virginia strike started over a pay dispute.

Resumption of negotiations was announced last night by William N. Margolis, assistant director of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service, who flew here from Washington yesterday.

He said there would be "further exploration" today into the issues of the nine-day-old strike, which had idled tens of thousands of dock workers and 200-odd vessels along the east coast and paralyzed large segments of the area's economic life.

A meeting of the strike committee of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association was scheduled today to study problems arising from the decision of Halifax longshoremen to handle any ship which docks at the Nova Scotia port.

The decision reestablished Halifax yesterday as the busiest port on the north Atlantic coast, with special "boat trains" shuttling liner passengers to and from the crippled port of New York.

As the strike of 65,000 members of the I.L.A. gripped a 700-mile stretch of the east coast, negotiations toward settling the 12-week-old Pacific coast maritime strike moved along steadily.

A longshoremen's pay dispute is at the heart of the west coast strike also.

In New York, Margolis set meetings today with the New York Shipping Association, representing the stevedore employers, and the I.L.A.'s strike committee.

Margolis also planned to meet with New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer, Arthur Meyer, head of the New York State Mediation Board; New Jersey State Mediation Board representatives and Mayor Frank Hague Eggers of Jersey City.

Economic blows in many fields continued as 123 ships were reported strike-bound in New York and about 100 in other ports.

Railroads, steamship lines, trucking companies and industries indirectly hit by the shipping stagnation laid off more workers. Many thousands of tons of cargo, including a huge amount of Marshall Plan supplies, piled up. Losses to business and industry continued to run into more millions of dollars.

The union and the stevedore employers remained far apart on the wage issue. The union is holding out for an increase of 50 cents an hour in the basic wage, along with welfare benefits.

The employees have stuck to proposed boosts of ten and 15 cents an hour—raising the day-shift straight-time from $1.75 to $1.85 an hour and the night and week-end overtime rate from $2.62½ to $2.77½ an hour.

Paul G. Boies, president of the Foreign Commerce Club of New York, told the club's monthly meeting last night that the strike will cause further inroads by other ports against the commerce of New York.

Ancient Rome had 14 aqueducts which brought in 300 million gallons of water a day.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18 (AP)—Assemblyman Harold C. Ostertag said today he had appointed a legislative sub-committee to investigate why the state must provide for a heavy load of welfare cases in a period of peak prosperity. The sub-committee, chairman of the special legislative committee on social welfare, appointed State Senator Floyd E. Anderson of Binghamton as chairman of the new sub-committee on the coordination of social resources.

Council to Meet Upon Resolution For Firemen's Pay

The Common Council will meet in special session at 7:30 p. m. today to act upon a resolution approving the firemen's claim for pay increases and to audit and act upon resolutions pertaining to election claims.

The resolution on the firemen's claims will empower the city treasurer to borrow $1,037.96 for payment of pay increases to the firemen as voted in the referendum of the last election.

Action on the firemen's claim will be similar to that taken when local police department employees were voted pay increases through referendum in 1947.

Election bills for inspectors and clerks this year totalled $4,315. The two claims are the only business scheduled for the special session of the councilmen.

Add Yellow Cheese

For a Welsh rarebit add a cup of grated yellow cheese to a cup of thin white sauce and season with dry mustard, celery salt and paprika; serve over crackers or toast.

Modern refrigeration was invented in 1861.

Knutson Would See

form of increased taxes," he said, "but not in the form of excess profits taxes in peacetime."

Knutson can't do anything about it himself. Minnesota voters retired him after 32 years in Congress—the last two years as chairman of the tax-drafting House Ways and Means Committee.

The former chairman, Representative Doughton (D-N.C.), will take over again when the Democrats start running the new Congress in January.

Mr. Truman and the administration at various times have backed a plan for reviving an excess profits tax on corporations.

Knutson said his objection to that kind of levy is that it "discriminates against the small corporations."

"Steel, automobiles, chemicals, machinery—they wouldn't be hard hit by it because they already have a well-established earning record," he said.

"But small companies were hanging on by an eyelash back in the late thirties. So if you say that anything they make above the high level of the period would be taxes, it would be like signing a death warrant."
